SOMETHING IS WRONG SOMEWHERE

There is a matter that should be intelligently and mutually taken up by the farmers and business men of this city who handle groceries. There are annually several thousands of dollars of groceries shipped into this valley. The farmers certainly labor under the impression that they are saving money on these goods or they would not place their goods with outside concerns. The grocermen of this city carry large stocks of goods and are in a position to sell these goods just as cheap if not less than these same goods are being secured. The Observer's close relations for the past ten years with the farmers of this valley knows that no more patriotic class of citizens live anywhere than the agricultural kings of Grande Ronde valley and if they were convinced that they could buy as cheap our home merchants they would much prefer so doing. On the other hand and we believe that they can and it is to the best interest of us all, that the merchants and farmers take up this matter in a business way and thoroughly investigate the conditions.
