LOCAL ITEMS

H. A. Letchum came over from Baker City this morning for a business visit.

B. F. Wilson is a Union resident, who is in La Grande today.

Attorney C. E. Cochran came over from Union this morning on legal business.

L. Cramp of Portland is in La Grande on business connected with the O. R. & N.

J. W. Allen and J. W. Riley of Enterprise are business visitors in La Grande today.

C. E. Dickey came down from Baker county last evening to spend the day with friends and relatives.

P. A. Worthington, right of way agent for the O. R. & N., is in the city during the law suit which is on before Judge Aiken.

Rev. Gillian, presiding elder of the M. E. Church for this district, held quarterly meeting here this week. It is the last before conference.—Wallowa News.

Water Superintendent and Mrs. H. C. Gilman returned this morning from a two week's trip to Newport and other seaside resorts and report having a splendid time.

W. J. Cook, president of the Wallowa Valley railroad, is in the city in the interest of his road during the law suit which is on between that company and the O. R. & N.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Woods, late of Clarinda, Iowa, left last evening for Portland where they will spend some time visiting. They expect to return by the fifteenth of August and locate on their lot in Fruit Dale which they recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. DeLong expect to leave in the morning for Lakeview where they will remain the summer visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. C. Oliver. They will make the trip by wagon and expect to be about two weeks on the road.

Peach Bros., after twenty-two consecutive years in the dairy business, have sold their fine Jersey herd, consisting of 35 choice cows, to Walter Perce. They will apply their energies to farming the 1000 acres which they own.

P. A. Foley, who went East with a train load of cattle nearly a month ago, returned last evening. The heat, he says, is intense. While in Omaha and Kansas City he spent the nights in the parks as it was impossible to stand the heat in the hotels. The air in the Grande Ronde is pleasant, he thinks.

Macon Gibson who late yesterday afternoon sustained a broken arm, was brought to the city last evening. The accident occurred while he and another boy were wrestling on the farm home of Mrs. M. J. Choate near Summerville. The break is a simple fracture of the elbow joint, and the sufferer is holding up nicely under the severe pain.

CAMPING ON THE MINAM

The Cove people that went to the Minam on a camping expedition last week returned Saturday, very tired but well satisfied with their trip over the mountain trails.

Those in the party were:—Messrs. Wen Ogden, Richard Wade, Vern Selders, Archie McNeil, Chas. McNeil, Marvin McNeil and Jack Sarley. Misses Rose McNeil, Anna, Troy and Ada Wade, Mrs. Wm. Ogden chaperoned the party.

They camped on the Minam and also on Indian Creek and Saturday they climbed to the top of Mount Fanny viewed the valley, placed their names in the depository and came home with hopes of better fishing next year.

L. P. DAY INJURED.

L. P. Day, a rancher, whose home is four miles north of this city, had the misfortune of breaking his leg this morning during a runaway. He was on his way to town, when his team became frightened and started to run. Mr. Day was thrown from the wagon falling in such a way that both bones in his ankle were broken. He was taken to this city, where surgical aid set the bones. He was alone in the rig at the time of the accident.

AUTO ACCIDENT

Because he did not want to run over a dog Dr. W. G. Cole met with an accident this forenoon. He was going up the south side of Court Street at the time, and just as he was passing in front of the Schiffer tailor shop a stray canine ran in front of the machine. In trying to miss the dog the doctor ran into a telephone pole and partly wrecked his machine.—East Oregonian.

OVERCOME BY HEAT

Conductor Wissler, of the La Grande division of the O. R. & N., was overcome by heat while coming from Echo to Pendleton and was taken violently ill here. He was sent to his home in La Grande on the eastbound passenger train Saturday evening. The water at Umatilla is very poor at this season of the year, and it is thought this, with the heat, caused the attack.—E. O.
