AN UNFORTUNATE SUGGESTION

(Scripps News Association)
 Hamburg July 19—The municipal council room in the town of Hagan in Westphalia was the scene of an amusing occurrence a few days ago. Vice-Burgomaster Wilde in an enthusiastic speech proposed that three new streets should be named after the celebrated physicians Dr. Koch, Dr. Behring and Dr. Roentgen in recognition of their brilliant services in the cause of suffering humanity.
 A storm of applause greeted the proposal, but an ominous silence fell upon the meeting when Councillor Buschhaus rose and pointed out that the three streets in the question led to the cemetery and that for this reason the eminent scientists named might not feel unqualified gratification at the honor it was proposed to confer upon them. It is hardly surprising to read that after this the matter was dropped by unanimous consent.

GENERAL WEATHER SUMMARY

The feature of the week was the excessively high temperatures that prevailed up to Monday, when it turned cooler in the western counties, but continued warm east of the Cascade Mountains. There was only one hot day in the coast counties, but elsewhere maximum temperatures of over 90 degrees were common and in a few localities maximum temperatures of over one hundred degrees occurred. No rain of consequence was reported, and that which fell was in the form of small showers that were heaviest in the Cascade and Blue mountains. Foggy nights and mornings prevailed in the coast counties. The winds were generally light and mostly from the northwest.

BARNHART CORRALS COYOTE

If there is any one in the city who owned a coyote and has lost him, can have the same by calling on Dayton Barnhart of the Standard grocery. Saturday evening Mr. Barnhart went out to feed some chickens in the back yard and saw a coyote, about two third grown, preparing to catch one for his supper. So intent was the coyote watching its intended prey that Date had no trouble in getting to the gate and closing it, thus making Mr. Coyote a prisoner. The coyote now languishes in durance vile waiting for his master for a master he has as was evidenced by the collar he wore around his neck.—Tribune.
