FUELED WAR RAGES IN KENTUCKY

(Scripps News Association)
Beaver Creek Ky. July 19—Dick Hall and Jack Thornberry, feud leaders, were assassinated from ambush today as they rode over a mountain trail. They tried to return the first valley but the second one killed both. The two men have been leaders of rival families that have been fighting for years. During the past year there has been peace between the two parties. John Thornberry married a member of the Hall family and his followers declared thereby he had betrayed his clan. The killing has resulted in both sides equipping themselves for strife and each side has mustered about forty men, with intrenchments in the mountains.

ON BOND FOR PUBLIC PEACE

Robert Wilkesen, who a day or two ago was released on bonds for assaulting with dangerous weapons, was arrested again yesterday and arraigned before Justice of the Peace Hough. The charge asked that the defendant be placed under bonds to keep the peace. The examination was continued until next Wednesday when witnesses will either prove him guilty of menacing public peace or cause his release. His bond, fixed at $1,000, was paid. It is alleged that Wilkesen is a sort of a bad man, and keeps the inhabitants of Starkey alarmed continually. The examination will of course establish the truth in the matter.
