No man can live in a sane existence without some healthy occupation. We are built that way.

A Portland Judge has handed down a decision which was satisfactory to both sides. Here is a candidate for a Carnegie hero medal. Nicht wahr?

SUFFRAGISTS IN ENGLAND

Oregon is not the only place where the woman suffrage question is agitating men and women, nor is the United States the only country. Over in England it is the rage among certain classes of women and the Carrie Nation type is not lacking. The question has been discussed on British soil for half a century, but has been very lively in recent parliamentary elections.

The daily news dispatches tell of women lodged in jails, and of properties sold under the hammer, because the "suffragettes" refuse to pay taxes so long as they are not allowed to vote. They are also arrested for disorderly conduct, for resisting officers, and for disturbing the peace of citizens, and when arrested they refuse to give bail. A favorite method of securing notoriety seems to be that of parading backward and forward all night before the homes of prominent government officials. The aim of all this is, of course, to make it appear that they are martyrs to the cause of womanhood and to excite sympathy as a help to their cause.

American women abroad are frequently criticised for being loud-voiced and manly in their ways. But American women at home have never mixed in the hurly-burly of practical politics as English wives and daughters frequently do in the parliamentary elections. And nowhere in the United States have we ever had a movement at all approaching the present suffragist uprising among the "soft-voiced" sisters of Great Britain.—Ex.

A SERMON IN VERSE WORTH CAREFUL STUDY

Below is printed a poem, composed by Rev. B. F. Meredith of the Methodist Church, and read by him at the conclusion of his sermon last evening. His subject was "Do it now!" and the following poem was used to summon up the thoughts brought out in the evening's discourse:

DO IT NOW!

Do you know a heart that's sad?—
Does God whisper: "Make him glad,"
Do it now!
Your time alas! may be too late:
Pray, then, do not hesitate—
Speak today the message needed—
Trusting that it will be heeded—
Do it now!

Has this ever come to you?
"I will read God's message through"
Do it now!
For when mem'ry will not hold,
Like a sieve it will not hold;
And life's multiplying care
Leaves but little time to spare—
Do it now!

Would you write a letter home
To the old folks—you who roam?—
Do it now!
For the messages are few
They can still receive from you,
It will fill their hearts with cheer,
And restrain the threatening tear.
Do it now!

Have you ever heard a voice
Saying: "Make my path your choice"?
Do it now!
For which every passing day
It grows harder to obey,
You'll escape a deal of sorrow
If you wait not 'till tomorrow.
Do it now!

From the snares your feet delay
Would you ever break away?
Do it now!
Hour by hour their grip grows stronger—
Be a habit-slave no longer,
By the help of Christ, all glorious,
From your fetters rise, victorious!
Do it now!

A projected railroad line that is creating much comment in the eastern newspapers is to run from New York City to Chicago. It will be an air line, reducing the present shortest line of 915 miles to 750 miles. The great feature of the proposed line is the fact that it is to be operated by electricity, the cars to have an average speed of 75 miles per hour.

An Amherst professor says the men of the future will be a race of weaklings if present educational methods are not changed. He insists that there must be more manual labor and less book work. If he can persuade anybody to work with his hands, simply for the purpose of giving some future man a strong constitution he will be entitled to all the medals available and a bas relief, at least.

The balance I give Rocky Mountain Tea.

A LITTLE TALK ON ICE CREAM SODA

NOT BETTER THAN THE BEST BUT BETTER THAN THE REST

To maintain the reputation we have acquired for supplying the needs of our many patrons in every department, a reputation we point to with pardonable pride, we want, now, to advise you that we have opened our soda fountain with a new line of crushed fruits and fruit juice which excel any which we have ever had, and while we may occasionally find a party who has never tried one of our delicious ICE CREAM SODAS we find a hundred who have, and do, and always will, because they want the best and appreciate a fine article. We have some new flavors this year which are going to be of universal favor on account of their delicate flavors. Hoping you will kindly favor us with an early call, so we may show you. We are respectfully,
