MULTITUDES OF PEOPLE FROM FAR AND NEAR IN LA GRANDE FOR A GALADAY

The great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers United shows arrived in La Grande this morning from Baker City, and within an hour the lots on the hill were transformed into a tented city. The stupendous circus came to La Grande after triumphs in many Utah, Idaho and Washington cities. It also has been seen by many of our citizens, and the show does not advertise anything on its bills but what is enacted in detail within its massive tents.

Such a recommendation is taken with a grain of salt until the circus is seen. At La Grande had a chance to judge the massive shows. The verdict was unanimously favorable to the great traveling city.

Forepaugh and Sells Brothers carry the largest and most diversified menagerie on wheels. It has the largest tiger in captivity, Maharajah by name—a title which in India means "Monarch." With the giant cat is a den of lions, all beautiful specimens of the jungle kings; three great herds of elephants, three great herds of camels, a giraffe, standing fourteen feet high; and bears and deer galore. The vast menagerie itself is worth the price the great show charges to pass within its doors.

The circus performance is a marvel. The new features added to the great show since last it was in the west practically works the monstrous performance into a new show. The fire scene is something grand. A hotel erected in the big performance tent catches fire. The quick work of the firemen in rescuing many people is so realistic that the observer believes for the instant that he is witnessing a conflagration.

When the firemen give up the show tent three herds of monster elephants perform tricks miraculous. The intelligence of these animals is second only to the beautiful control which their trainers have over them.

From the time the elephants occupy the ring until the National Anthem tells the crowd the great show is over, the air is full of graceful flying performers. The trapeze performers and acrobats—high in the air, are applauded to the echo by admiring thousands.

Forepaugh-Sells show has a right to call itself great, because there has never been anything in Oregon to compare with it.

The show carries five million feet of canvas, eight hundred people and one hundred cars. More than a mile of wagons took part in the gorgeous parade. The parade feature of the circus was by no means a small one. Many of the equestrians rode in it, and the comical clown hand furnished fun for the youngsters.

All in all, it may be said that the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers United gait shows comprise the ideal circus.

Little boys, big boys, little girls and big girls, were there this morning at five o'clock waiting for the first section of the Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Bros. Big Circus. From that hour on the streets began to fill with expectant little children anxious to see the big elephants, lions and other famous animals.

The street parade scheduled for ten was a little late but when it finally arrived expectations were realized for it was all that was advertised.

Wagon loads of farmers with their families began to arrive at six o'clock and by the time the parade occurred there were hundreds of them in town. Every available room in the hotels was taken up at an early hour and many farmers ate their lunches in vacant lots.

The huge tent at the circus grounds was filled this afternoon to witness the really splendid performance. Only one criticism was heard and that was that there were too many spectacular sights going on at the same time.

The special train that went to Elgin this morning returned with five coaches packed like sardines. The ticket agent at Elgin reported that two hundred and seventy five bought tickets, but before the special arrived here there were in the neighborhood of four hundred passengers on board, all bent on seeing the sights.

Passenger train number six brought in over a hundred visitors from Pendleton and other points in the mountains.

The size of the crowd is best told in the simile expressed by a visitor from Elgin. When he alighted from the train at the depot this morning, he patiently wormed his way through the crowd for a while and then remarked, "Gee! La Grande is making a noise like Portland."

The doors for the evening show open at seven o'clock, the performance beginning promptly at eight o'clock.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strongly. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.
