The outlaw natives really outnumbered the James detachment. Munitions and ten men were captured after the struggle had lasted nearly an hour. The Pulajanes were driven back and are now in the hills again.

JUMPED FROM CAR WINDOW

(Scripps News Association)
Cleveland, August 10.—Estella Bloomingle leaped through the window from the flyer Band O. this morning while running sixty miles an hour and was fatally injured. Weeping and wailing she exclaimed, "I have been bad, and do not care to live any longer," then made the fatal plunge through the window. Judge Lawrence today refused to issue an injunction requiring mayor Tom Johnson to replace the tracks he assisted in tearing up for the municipal ownership street car line.

NELSON WILL FIGHT GANS

(Scripps News Association)
Reno, Nevada, Aug. 10.—Batting Nelson who will fight Joe Gans at Goldfield on September 5, arrived here from Salt Lake this morning. He intended to train at Reno but manager Nolan prepared for him to train at Goldfield and he left this morning for the latter place. Nelson is in a fine condition and will put up a hard battle. It is only a knock out blow that will end the fight.

Goldfield, Nev., Aug. 10.—Manager Nolan and Joe Gans met this afternoon and signed the articles for the coming fight. Nelson will get two-thirds and Gans one third of the thirty thousand purse which is up. If Nelson loses, Nelson, Gans and the club will each get one third.

PLANS OF OLD VETS ARE COMPLETED

(Scripps News Association)
Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 10.—Arrangements are complete for the G. A. R. encampment next week. National Commander Tanner arrived this morning and was received by a battery of national guard. He refused to ride to his hotel in an automobile and could not shake hands because his right arm is tied up in a sling on account of a felon. It is expected that two hundred thousand visitors will be in the city and that twenty-five thousand will participate in the parade.

They arrived in the city yesterday looking for a lost horse, and want to Sheriff Childers with a claim which says that they have the horse spotted in this city. The Indian agent has been sent for and when he arrives the question will be taken up and if the Indians are successful in proving that the horse rightfully belongs to them the animal of course will be given to them.

EXAMINATIONS FOR CORNELL

(Scripps News Association)
Brooklyn, N. Y., August 10.—The examination of candidates for free scholarship in Cornell University, which was held last June, having been declared null and void owing to some crookedness on the part of a few of the candidates, a re-examination of the students who were examined in June is being held today. Acting City Superintendent John Walsh is in charge of the examination and great care has been taken to make it impossible for any of the candidates to crib or try some other dishonest practices. Only those who took part in the June examination are admitted to this new examination.

OUR IDEA OF TRADE - BUILDING

We believe that people wish to trade where they can do best, and that to get their trade it is necessary to do best by them. This is the principle that we have tried to apply, and it has proven effective.

We are sure that our business will keep on growing. It will grow because all those features that have brought trade are still in operation. We want your trade, and we ask for it solely on the basis of our intention and ability to do you good, and we ask you to come here whenever you need anything that a druggist ought to sell, and feel sure that if you come once you will continue to come.
