Pendleton saved $2000 in cash today by having the circus pass through town says the East Oregonian.

Mr. Rockefeller, in a recent interview declared that he is "full of the joy of living." Mr. Rockefeller, then, is not one of Mr. Carnegie's millionaires who seldom laugh.

A centenarian who is an inmate of the Rochester, N. Y., poorhouse, attributes his long years to the fact that he has never married. Maybe that fact is also responsible for his being in the poorhouse. —Ex.

A rake, a shovel in the hands of a workman, and an occasional fire has worked wonders with Washington Avenue between Fourth and Sixth, and also a portion of Fourth street. Small crew of men have throngly cleaned these streets today and the improved appearance is wonderful.

The time required for a journey round the earth by a man walking day and night, without resting, would be 428 days; an express train, 40 days; sound, at medium temperature, 52-1-2 hours; light, a little over one tenth of a second, and electricity, passing through a copper wire, a little under one-tenth of a second.

Last Wednesday the lack of a public park was felt stronger than any previous day, with perhaps an exception, that of the Fourth. What a real treat it would be for the hard working farmer, and the farmer's family to rise up with the birds on a circus day, pack their "Grub basket" and drive into La Grande here to see all the sights and attractions, and at the noon hour to retire to a shady little nookin in a shady little park, and there spread the contents of the basket before the hungry little ones.

When the little feed would be completed and the crumbs cleared away Papa and Mamma could find a comfortable bench from which Mamma could keep a surveillance eye on the children, while Papa could fill that old corn cob and speculate on his crops. After an hour of real resting the happy family could proceed with a joyful heart and light step to the big tent there to be treated with the annual eye feast of a circus day performance. That is what it might be;—the following is what it was. Wednesday in a few words, every church step in the city was crowded with groups of visitors with their lunch baskets, vainly trying to find a shady spot big enough to spread a mite to eat.

THE HOTTEST YET

The thermometer this afternoon registered one hundred degrees. This is about the warmest yet, and the sultry sultry air made it still more disagreeable.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY

Was the charge against Peter O'Sullivan, who was arraigned before Recorder Snook this morning. He had been arrested last night. A fine of ten dollars was paid and the man released.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned Administrator of the estate of John McDonald, deceased, has filed his final account as such administrator in the county court of the state of Oregon for Union county and said county court has fixed Monday, the 13th day of August 1906, for final hearing thereon and settlement thereof.

Dated at La Grande, Ore., June 26, 1906.

Administrator

A tragic finish

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Va. cebra, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold, but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at Newlin Drug Co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A LITTLE TALK ON ICE CREAM SODA

NOT BETTER THAN THE BEST BUT BETTER THAN THE REST

To maintain the reputation we have acquired for supplying the needs of our many patrons in every department, a reputation we point to with pardonable pride, we want, now, to advise you that we have opened our soda fountain with a new line of crushed fruits and fruit juice which excel any which we have ever had, and while we may occasionally find a party who has never tried one of our delicious ICE CREAM SODAS we find a hundred who have, and do, and always will, because they want the best and appreciate a fine article. We have some new flavors this year which are going to be of universal favor on account of their delicate flavors. Hoping you will kindly favor us with an early call, so we may show you, We are respectfully,
