LOST BOYS FOUND

The two sons of Gilbert Konizeski who went hunting and fishing in the mountains in the vicinity of Big Meadows last Sunday and lost their way were found yesterday morning about 5:30 o'clock by Mike Lynch in Tiger Canyon, about two miles from Klicker Springs, says the Walla Walla Union.

Yesterday morning Mr. Lynch, who had been hunting for the boys ever since Sunday, went into the mountains on horseback with Mr. Konizeski. About eight or nine miles up the stream from camp they picked up the boys' trail and Mr. Lynch hurried on while Mr. Konizeski, who had no horse, built a big fire and waited for his return. The boys were found a short distance farther up creek still heading on into the wilderness. They were nearly exhausted and seemed to have no idea where they were going.

They had been without food or shelter for 50 hours and the younger boy, who is but 10 years of age, was very weak and completely worn out. The older boy, who is sixteen years old, had devoted himself to caring for his brother, and it was through his thoughtfulness that the little fellow had been able to keep up for so long.—Pendleton E. O.

HONESTY BRINGS WEALTH TO BOY

James Harvey of La Grande, who was in the city show day, accidentally lost from his hip pocket a bill book containing $40 in bills and some valuable papers. After arriving on the show grounds he missed the wallet and supposed it had been stolen. While he was deliberating on the best method of procedure in order to recover his money, a little boy rushed up panting for breath and held out the wallet to Mr. Harvey.

The little fellow saw the wallet fall from his pocket while he was seated in a conveyance enroute to the grounds and rushing into the street he seized the pocket book and chased the wagon in which Mr. Harvey was riding to the circus and returned it to him.

Mr. Harvey divided the contents of the purse with the boy.—Baker City Democrat.
