"TOUCH 'EM SALLY" ILL

Sheriff Childers has a sick prisoner at the court house. The patient is the woman who a few weeks ago was arrested for touching one of La Grande's citizens for some money, and was held over to the grand jury by Justice Hough. During the last few days she has devoured less opium than usual and as her physical health grew worse, a physician was called. It is feared she will have to be taken to the hospital as symptoms point to typhoid fever. Her court name is Howard, but since her episode in this city she has been christened "Touch 'em Sally".

DIED

BOOKMAN—In this city, Aug. 10, 1906, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bookman, aged 4 months. The funeral will be conducted from the residence of F. M. Bartmess at ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

MARRIED; IN 11 DAYS DIVORCED

Oregon City, Ore., Aug. 9—Eleven days of married life sufficed for Will Hayward, according to the allegations of a suit for divorce complaint that was filed against him today by Bertha A. Hayward, whom he married in this county September 22, 1903. Plaintiff charges that defendant deserted her on October 3, 1903. She asks to resume her maiden name, Bertha A. Trullinger.

On the grounds of desertion, Musetta B. Embody also filed suit for divorce from Uri Embody, to whom she was married at Santa Ana, Cal., in June, 1896.

NOTICE

All members of La Grande Lodge No. 16, I. O. O. F., are requested to be at their hall tomorrow at 1:30 o'clock sharp to attend the funeral of D. K. Keltz.

There are some business (?) men in every community who do not advertise. They always are drags on the community. But if any difficulty or disgraceful episode arises with which they are connected they always want it kept out of the papers. When a business is so poor its owner can't afford to advertise his creditors better hold an inquest over it and close the chapter.

Mrs. D. F. Kinsey of Baker City passed through the city this morning met and took with her to Portland the little son of E. Kinsey of this city who is suffering from appendicitis. The little fellow will be subjected to a careful examination but it is not thought that an examination will be necessary. Mrs. Kinsey is the mother of Mrs. John Shea of this city.

MUST WORK

Marshall Rayburn today rounded up four freight car tourists and placed a charge of vagrancy against them. Recorder Snook gave them five days on the street under the supervision of street superintendent H. W. Stoner.

One of the four vagrants, the "Hon. Peter Johnson", refused to work and Marshall Rayburn placed him in jail on bread and water until the expiration of his sentence.

RESERVOIR IS CLEANED

Water Superintendent Gilman last night completed his task of cleaning the city reservoir. After removing all foreign matter, he had the inside of the tank whitewashed. It now has a sanitary appearance and contains the usual pure water. He also sent a barrel of lime through the water mains to purify the water in them and by the time their present contents are removed, the water will be pure in all parts of the city. The superintendent predicts that during this evening the water will again be fit to drink.

REST YOUR AUNT

And your uncle, too, by treating them to one of our 25 cent dinners. They'll have that pleasant after dinner feeling if they dine with us. The quality of our viands is unsurpassed. They are cooked to perfection. See how healthy and happy the Model Restaurant dinners are. Don't you wish you ate at their tables? Well, we can make room for all who come and still have some left for the straggling business delayed dinner.

THRASHERS ARE OUT
