VACUUM

In a process recently patented in Germany sugar juice is obtained from fresh or dried beet root or sugar cane shreddins, beet or sugar cane slices, or chop or paste of beet root or sugar cane employing vacuum, and is charactized by extraction vessel being employed which has, after the manner of the "Robe rt' evaporator, a vertical heating tube arrangment below, surrounded by steam, the pipes of which, intended for heating the extracting liquid, are covered by a sieve, while the extraction is effected in the upper part of the vessel.

Standard Oil has reduced the price of oil half a cent a gallon. Evidently Mr. Rockefeller is not contemplating any immediate donation to his university.

The Umatilla grain producers are recording 35, 40, 45, 50, 55 bushels of wheat and 62 bushels of barley to the acre. And wheat is quoted at 58 cents

One after another of the Oregon timber land thieves are going to the penitentiary The evidence is so overwhelming that not one defendant has been acquitted.-Demcrat.

Canada cannot be accused of illiberality in dealing with its Indians.

A new treaty with the Indians of Alberta and Saskatchewan grants them one square mile of territouy for each family of five, while those who prefer to live seperate from the band will be granted 160 acres each.

The water supply furnished La Guande is from the Grande Ronde river, a polluted stream, and the supply barely enough for the needs of the city.

A movement is on foot to obtain water from another source and put in a gravity system. The cost will be $100,000 or more. The situation in La Grande now is the condition Baker City was in four or five years ago. Baker City did the proper thing when it bought the old Auburn canal and water rights and expanded about $100,000 in a gravity system.

Now it has plenty of the most healthful water, enough to furnish a city three times its present size.—Baker City Democrat.

In a letter to the assessor of Wallowa county regarding the Householders' Exemption, State Attorney General Crawford writes as follows: "While I regret that the supreme court decided that the exemption to householders is unconstitutional and void, I am of the opinion that it is best for all taxing officers to observe the law as declared by the court, and, therefore, to readjust their rolls accordingly."—Oregon Scout.

The county court of Baker county is going after the road overseers, and hereafter will insist on knowing where the work has been, how many men and teams were employed and how much time was put in, also how much work was done.

The lump sum road bill devoid of specifications, except that the work was done in a certain district, is going out of fashion in Baker county. The Oregon road graft is very great in some cases, and the only protection the people have is through the county court.—Eagle.

SHOULD BE A LAW

Here's a chunk of good news for our old maids, if they can only be induced to confess their real ages. A genius who is a member of the legislature and who feels sorry for the lonely old maids, has a plan to get a law passed that when the single women get to be thirty years old, that they shall be allowed the privilege of picking out a man for a husband, and if he refuses when proposed to he must pay a fine, one half to go to the old maid he wouldn't accept.

FOUND ENORMOUS CAVE

A marvelous cave six to eight miles long, 40 feet in diameter and believed to lead into the very bowels of the extinct crater of Mount St. Helens, has been found by explorers and was visited by a party of Portland men. They followed the subterranean chamber nearly two miles with lanterns and then clamored out through a break in the side, opening upon a swale.
