STRUCK BED OF ICE

Frank Rogers, who lives in Menastash canyon, about ten miles west of Ellensburg, has a cellar on his place that is both a curiosity and a very valuable adjunct to have, says the Ellensburg Localizer.

Several years ago he started to dig a well near his house and after getting down five or six feet he struck a bed of solid ice. He transformed the excavation from a well into a cellar and now has a cold storage plant that is second to none. An even temperature is maintained and no care or expense is required to maintain it.

The temperature is near the zero mark and a quarter of beef kept in the cellar remains fresh and sweet for an indefinite period. This natural ice plant has an altitude of about 600 feet higher than the bed of the canyon and has an altitude of about 100 feet above Ellensburg. Mr. Rogers is independent of the icy factory and at this time such is a most fortunate condition.

Walla Walla Union—Bidding "Good bye" to a fellow prisoner who was lying ill in his cell, Ed. Bloom, a convict at the state penitentiary, committed suicide yesterday morning at about 6 o'clock by jumping head first from the top tier of cells to the concrete floor, 30 feet below.

Coroner Cookerly was immediately notified of Bloom's death, and after a careful investigation decided that an inquest was unnecessary. He authorized the prison authorities to dispose of the body as they thought best, and it is probable that burial will be made in the cemetery at the penitentiary.

Bloom who was an American Jew about 26 years of age, was serving his second term for burglary, the last term being an eight year sentence, of which time he had served three years.

While scratching the end of his nose with a loaded revolver, George Acres, at Seligman Junction, Mo., blew the end of his nose off.

Ott Brothers, of Enterprise, are preparing to leave in the near future for Ukiah California, where they have purchased property and have already commenced the erection of a large building to be used by them as a brewery. They are disposing of their property here and expect to leave shortly.—Wallowa News.

HAS A POCKET FULL OF NUGGETS

Wallace Idaho, August 11—With $665 in the form of gold nuggets Frank Peart after an absence of 14 months in Alaska returned to his home yesterday. While away Mr. Peart located a gold claim about four miles from Nome, and it was from this claim that he extracted the gold mentioned. He expects to return to his diggings after a brief visit here and in Colorado.

Only 82 years old

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by Newlin Drug Co. Price 50c.
