PRETTY COUNTRY WEDDING

The following was clipped from the Weiser Signal:
"A pretty wedding occurred at the pleasant country home of the bride's brother, Mr. J. H. Hughes, Wednesday evening, August 8, 1906, when Miss Emma Hughes was united in marriage to Mr. Samuel Merrill Henderson.
After the ceremony hearty congratulations and best wishes were extended by the guests present, about forty in number.
A splendid wedding supper was served in the dining room.
A large number of beautiful presents, consisting of silverware, chinaware and cut glass pieces were received, a number coming from friends from a distance.
Miss Hughes has lived in Weiser for about three years, coming here from La Grande, Oregon. During this time she has become very popular, numbering her friends by her acquaintances. She has, during most of this time, been organist at the Methodist church, and had endeared herself to every member of the choir and congregation.
Mr. Henderson came to Weiser from Illinois just a little over a year ago, and has for the past few months been employed in the store of W. D. Candee. He made friends from the time of his arrival in the city, and now has a large circle of friends who congratulate him on his good fortune. He is a brother of Lee C. and Chas. A. Henderson of this city.
Mr. and Mrs. Henderson left on the train yesterday evening for Galesburg, Illinois, where Mr. Henderson will engage in business with his father, and they will make their future home."

AN ATTRACTIVE SMOKE
means a fine cigar. There is a fascination in La Fiore De Hackman's special cigars that is irresistible, even to those who do not use tobacco. It is not hard to account for however, because it is the highest type of a cigar. Havana, Hied, Havana wrapper, hand made. It has many imitators, so be sure and get the real thing.
