mains a fine cigar. There is a fascination in La Fiere De Hackman's special cigars that is irresistible, even to those who do not use tobacco. It is not hard to account for, no wonder, because it is the highest type of a cigar. Havana, filled, Havana wrapper, hand made. It has many imitators, so be sure and get the real thing.

A NEW BAPTIST CHURCH

The baptists of the city are making ready for a splendid new church. Their present church home has all the furniture removed, the bell taken down, and the trustees are now waiting for John Wilson who has purchased the structure, to remove it so that work can begin on the new building. The building was sold to Mr. Wilson for $250.00 but he has not yet decided what use he will make of it nor just where he intends to move it to. Work on the foundation of the new building will commence as soon as the site is vacated, and when the proposed church is completed it will be a brick structure costing in the neighborhood of $9,000.00.

The old white church has stood on the present site for nearly nine years. At that time it was moved from its first location on Fourth street in Old Town, to where it now stands by J. Childs.

Mr. and Mrs. Causey were the recipients of a very beautiful present presented to them by the club.

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames M. L. Causey, H. C. Grady, Fred Kiddie, Jay VanBuren, E. W. Bartlett, J. H. Aikine, Wm. Erickson, Mesdames Allinson, Cavana, McCully and Mr. MacLennan.

A GOOD MINSTREL

A fairly good sized house listened to Mahara's Minstrels last evening. Judging from comments heard on the street this morning, all were satisfied with the performance. Two specialties, an Indian characterization by Leroy Bland, and the juggler were especially fine. The former captivated the audience with song characterization and dancing that could not be bettered. His every move was a personification of gracefulness and his voice superb. There was but little criticism to find with any of the parts.

CONSIDERING LIQUOR LICENSE

The county court met yesterday in an adjourned session to consider the petition for a liquor license to sell liquor in the new town of Minam in North Elgin precinct, also to listen to arguments of Attorneys Lloyd and Crawford who represent a group of people in that precinct who object to the petition. The remonstrance has a larger list of signers than the petition, but after considering the question nearly all day yesterday, the court decided to take the matter up again at the next session which will be the first of September. E. C. Berry of North Elgin precinct is the applicant for the license.

NEW CITY IN UNION COUNTY

There will soon be a new village in Union county. This proposed city is situated in the north precinct of Elgin and is already platted. The lots are selling at three hundred dollars per acre and from the way they are being taken up, there will soon be a promising little village. The new village will be called Minam.
