THE OLD
 MILITARY ROAD SOLD

Portland, Or., Aug. 17.—The ownership of almost one one-hundredth of the state of Oregon was changed today. After the extended negotiations the greater portion of the land included in the old Oregon Central Military road grant was transferred from the California & Oregon Land company, of which the Booth-Kelly Lumber company is a large owner, to the syndicate composed of eastern and California capitalists.

Approximately 500,000 acres are included in the sale and the consideration involved is about $750,000.

The principal purchasers of this great tract are the Hunter Land company of Minneapolis, Minn., and Richard Skyes, a capitalist of Santa Barbara, Cal. Associated with them are the W. B. S. Trimble company of Jamestown, N. D., and Andrew E. Johnson, vice president of the Hunter Land Company, and President A. E. Johnson of the Land and Steamship company.

The tract sold is a strip of land running from the Cascade forest reserve to the Oregon-Idaho boundary, a distance of approximately 525 miles. It has a width of twelve miles.

The only portion excluded from the sale is a strip about 25 miles long, running through the Klamath Indian reservation. The purchase of the tract is declared to be the initiative step in an extensive colonization project.

 Save cash for clothes as well as rent
 Treat my wife and children too

BUTCHER
 TO MEET
 WM. BRYAN

Colonel W. F. Butcher, one of the few stand-pat democratic war horses of Oregon, left last night on No. 2 for New York for the purpose of meeting William Jennings Bryan, the local nominee of the democratic party for president two years hence, who is returning from a tour around the world. Colonel Butcher is just as enthusiastic today as he was in 1896 on the money question, and believes that Bryan will stand pat on the question of the free coinage of silver. Some other democrats are not so sure that Bryan ought to say anything about free silver. Colonel Butcher says that the entire question has been misrepresented and thoroughly misunderstood. The Colonel is a personal friend of Bryan's and will meet at his home in Lincoln, Neb. after the New York demonstration.—Baker City Democrat.

WANTED—Two men to take contract to cut from three to five hundred cords of wood. Inquire at this office.
