report a splendid time.

It has just leaked out that a wager of more than usual interest was made between two business men last Monday in Pendleton. According to the report, John Schmidt, a local capitalist, called upon Henry Kopittice, the coal merchant, to inquire the price of coal. The coal dealer furnished the desired information, whereupon Mr. Schmidt declared that the price was altogether too high, as he could have the fuel delivered at his place of business for $7 a ton. An argument ensued which terminated by Mr. Kopittke saying that valuation of the assessor who listed the he would bet $1000 that it was impossible to get coal delivered at any house in test suggests very modestly that it be cut Pendleton at that price. Mr. Schmidt im- to $6500. mediately called the bet and their respective checks were filled out for $1000 and signed.

Then they went down to Mr. Lastz' another coal dealer, who confessed having made a contract with Mr. Schmidt. Monday and will have a month's work whereby the other was to have coal de- mapped out for it for it must hear comton. The checks were accordingly turned county. over to Mr. Schmidt, but when he went to have the result of the wager cashed, he this year he listed properties at about one found the coal merchant had been to the half their real valuation. The result is a band ahead of him and stopped payment long, and rather prolonged howl from the on the check. Mr. Schmidt is very much | O. R. & N. and others. Owing to the fact that neither buyers visiting her aunt Mrs William Thomas. nor sellers showed up yesterday at the hour appointed for the holding of the third regular wheat sales day, the the Oregon National Guards returned president of the Wheat Growers associtation declared the meeting postponed for one week. President Scott says the farmers are two busy now to take time The O. R. & N. has started the fight to come to town and that therefore it became necessary to postpone the meeting.

The buyers are rejoicing at what they consider the breaking up for the association in so far as the holding of sale is concerned. They say that since Mr. Scott, the president of the association scores which will be made this year upon has seen fit to dispose of his crop at private sale, that the other members of the association will be free to do likewise and that therefore there Prager will be no further attempt made to hold a sale.

> Scott sold his crop of 10,000 bushels ast Friday to W. W. Raymond of Walls Walla, at 59 cents per busnel. - Pendleton

The ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed, and the method of combining and preparing them so that they gently and pleasantly build up and strengthen every part of the body, make it the ideal tonic for a disordered condition of the system. Every one feels the need of a tonic sometimes. The system seems to get "out of gear," the appetite becomes fickle, the energies are depressed, sleep is not restful or refreshing, and the entire body has a nervous, worn-out feeling. When the system is in this depleted, run-down condition it must be aided by a tonic, and S. S. is recognized every-where as the standard. Being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks selected for their gentle action as well as their invigorating effect on the system, it will not disagreeably affect any of the delicate members or tissues as do most of the so-called tonics on the market which contain potash or some other harmful mineral ingredient. These derange the stomach and digestion, unfavorably affect the bowels or otherwise damage the health. amage the health S. S. tones up the stomach and digestion, improves the appetite, produces refreshing sleep, rids the body of that tired, run-down feeling, and supplies tone and vigor to the entire system. It re-establishes the healthy circulation of the blood, acts more promptly and gives better and more lasting results than any other tonic, and because of its vegetable purity is an absolutely safe medicine for young or old. S. S. S. acts admirably in cases of dyspepsia, indigestion and other stomach troubles, and after using it that uncomfortable iccl. ag of fullness, dizziness or drowsiness, after eating, are no longer felt. Not only is S. S. S. the greatest of all tonics but possesses purifying and alterative properties, and if there is a taint in the blood it will promptly remove every trace and restore perfect health. In selecting your tonic for this year do not experiment but get S. S. S., the recognized stand THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA. GA.
