WILL NOT RECEIVE CLEMENCY

Governor Chamberlain has notified Moses Taylor, the wealthy rancher of Umatilla county, who is serving a two and a half year sentence at the penitentiary for conviction of attempted arson, that he will not extend executive clemency in his behalf and further than he is doing at the present time. Taylor is making double time in working up on the road with the regular convict crew at the fair grounds.

Taylor is rated at about $100,000 and at the time of and before his conviction of the offense charged inducing two others to set fire to the barn of his neighbor, he is said to have boasted that he would never see the inside of the penitentiary and he is also reported to have spent several thousand dollars of his wealth in his efforts to procure a pardon for himself. It is understood that the governor, in his letter to Taylor referred to this indiscriminate spending of his money and told him that he had better save his money for the benefit of himself and family after having served his sentence. He was committed in February, 1906.

SHE NEVER LIVED IN LA GRANDE

The young men of Freewater, Or., are evidently exceedingly bashful or else there is a very poor bunch there from which to choose. A Walla Walla lady purchased a box of peaches in this city yesterday and found the following written on the inside:
"Write to me. Am sweet young girl, age 16. Never been kissed.

"Freewater, Or., R. F. D. No. 2"

We have refrained from publishing the name for there is no doubt but that the young lady expected the box to be sent farther away and besides it would be unfair to have her flooded with letters from all the old bachelors in the country. However, in order to assist the young lady in securing a sweetheart, the city editor of the Union has consented to act as official censor and all communications intended for the young lady should be sent to him. The standing of the applicants will carefully be investigated and the letters of those on the eligible list will be forwarded to the lady at Freewater and the balance will be published. Come early and avoid the rush.—Walla Walla Union.

Only 82 years old

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by Newlin Drug Co. Price 50c.

A tragic finish

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vauceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold, but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure at Newlin Drug Co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Hot off the Bat

A baseball team in Walla Walla under honest and competent management would no doubt be a success, but there would need to be some radical changes in methods if the season were made any more successful than it proved this year. The people want something for their money more than bluffing and hot air.—Walla Walla Union.

SNOW ON THE MOUNTAINS

Last evening after the rain which visited Baker City had ceased, a light skiff of snow could be seen on the highest peaks of the Elkhorn range. The snow was light and did not remain very long but it was plainly discernable for some time. This is the earliest date on which snow has fallen on these mountains within the memory of many old timers, although snow in September is not an unusual thing. But it was very cold even in Baker City and it was certainly cold enough for snow on the mountains.—Baker City Democrat.

Quite A Contract

James Halley of La Grande has recently harvested ten acres of oats which will produce 80 bushels to the acre. Johnny Hill of Pendleton will try to beat this stunt and feels quite sure that he can exceed this magnificent yield. There will be an exhibition at the district fair at Pendleton of the two crops.—Pendleton Promoter.

SERVED TROUT

L. L. Miller's restaurant in Lewiston, Idaho, was fined $25 for serving brook trout caught in Idaho. Under the state law a person cannot catch brook trout for market.

ELABORATE PREPARATIONS

Elaborate preparations are being made at Boise for the reception to be tendered Vice-president Fairbanks upon his visit there during the irrigation congress. A monster public reception is being planned among other things.

THIEF CAPTURED

Henry W. Swant, 24 years of age, a distributing clerk in the parcel department of the general postoffice, has been arrested on a charge of embezzlement from the mails. He had stolen property worth $5000 at New York.
