SAD FATE OF TWIN OFFICERS

(Scripps News Association)
Washington, D. C., Aug. 29.—The War Department has heard nothing further concerning Lieutenant John S. Hamilton of the 12th Infantry, since his disappearance some weeks ago from Fort Jay, New York, where he was stationed. Fears are entertained by his friends that he is mentally affected and that some harm has come to him. His brother, formerly a lieutenant in the army, is now a patient at the government hospital for the insane here, where he was sent following a series of wild escapades in the Philippines. The two officers were twin brothers and obtained commissions in the army about the same time. They gave promise of being bright and capable officers and of having most creditable careers. Lieutenant J. S. Hamilton, brother of Lieutenant J. S. Hamilton, resigned by request before it was fully known in Washington to what extent he had misbehaved himself, or that he was mentally affected. The absence of the other brother has created much sympathy for the family of the two young men. The military authorities do not expect to hear again of Lieutenant Hamilton, unless he is overtaken somewhere. He will then be tried for absence without leave. If he does not appear of his own accord within three months he will be dropped from the army register as a deserter at the end of that period.

BIG CLASS FOR F. OF A.

At their last regular meeting, the Foresters of America, completed arrangements for the big class initiation and banquet next Thursday evening. They expect to have with them at that time some of the members from Baker City also the Grand Court officers from Portland. The local court is increasing its membership very rapidly, and this class will give them a membership of nearly a hundred and fifty. The order has now a membership in the United States of three hundred thousand and last year paid out over two million dollars to its members in sick and accident benefits. The order contributed nearly a hundred thousand dollars to the Foresters relief fund at the time of the San Francisco disaster, in which city they had forty two courts. A remarkable showing for an order that in 1889 had a membership of only fifty five thousand members in the United States.
