GARVER'S WELCOME TO PENDLETON

Rev. John E. Garver and family have moved to Pendleton from Prairie City, where Mr. Garver has been for the past two years pastor of the Methodist church.
 They are living at 404 East Webb street.
 Mr. Garver comes to Pendleton as the resident agent of the State Anti-Saloon league, having its affairs in hand for the eastern parts of the state, working in conjunction with Dr. Paul Rader of Portland, the president of the state league.
 Mr. Garver came to Oregon from Noble-ville Ind., where he was practicing attorney and was by election prosecuting attorney of Hamilton county.
 From this it will be inferred that Mr.
 Garver is an attorney, which is true and he comes to Oregon and to Pendleton with an abundance of endorsements as a proud and energetic lawyer. Naturally he will have charge of the legal phases of the temperance work in Eastern Oregon; he will be, as he is now the legal adviser of the Anti-Saloon league and probably of all the other temperance organizations as well.
 Much of his time will be spent in the lecture field. He is a very effective speaker —one of the best in the state, and is a natural agitator for moral forms.—Pendleton E. O.

COTTON YEAR

(Scrapps News Association) Charlotte N. C. Aug. 31—According to the statistics for the year ending today the past year has been the greatest cotton year in the history of this country.
 The crop was large and not only were a large number of new cotton mills built during the year, but also many other manufacturing establishments which use cotton as a raw material. The new consumption of cotton has also greatly increased by the many additions which have been made during the past year.

A tragic finish

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vancuboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes:
 "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold, but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at Newlin Drug Co. 50c and $1.00.
