NORTH SIDE SOUTH SIDE WHO'L WIN

It's a sure go this time the elements favoring this locality with pleasant weather. This many times proposed ball game between North and South sides will be held next Monday afternoon. As this date is a holiday, a large crowd of citizens young and old, will no doubt gather to witness the last game of the season. It has been a long time now since an exhibition of ball tossing has been seen within our gates, and here will be a chance for lovers of the game to put in store something to think about the coming game when the word baseball is mentioned.

PRETTY BABIES PARADE

(Scripps News Association)
Asbury Park, N. J. Aug. 30—This is the day of the great Babies' Parade, which annually, during Carnival week, draws thousands of visitors from all parts of the East to this resort. Judging from the number of entries the parade will be larger and more interesting than last year. The number of prizes donated by the various hotels and many of the wealthy summer residents of Asbury Park is also larger than ever before and there will be keen competition for the principal prizes.

In the evening will be Children's night at the casino. Under the musical direction of Director Morgan, "A Night in Fairyland" will be produced in the most gorgeous and brilliant style and on a magnificent scale. One thousand children dressed in white, will sing and drill and an elaborate program will be executed.

CENTURIANS CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

(Scripps News Association)
Meridan, Conn. Aug. 31—As in former years Grandma Elizabeth Hunt, said to be the oldest woman on Long Island, came to Meridan, where many of her relatives live, to spend her birthday. Mrs. Hunt, who is still comparatively strong and vigorous, was born 107 years ago at Lancaster, Pa. In 1827, she went to Brooklyn and lived there until her husband died in 1858, when she removed to Middletown, Conn. After a few years she returned to Brooklyn and has lived there ever since. She worked hard until she was ninety years old.

Freehold, N. J. Aug. 31—"Aunt Betsey" Coward of Allentown is celebrating her 105th birthday with her numerous relatives and friends in this town. She is still quite vigorous for her age and enjoys her mental faculties to a remarkable degree.
