LA GRANDE BOYS LIKE MELLONS

Two car loads of Payette watermelons arrived this morning for the Oregon Produce Company. This makes the ninth car to arrive for this enterprising firm this season. Nine car loads of melon for the La Grande market speaks well for the melon capacity of the citizens of this locality. This morning when the Observer reporter followed his nose into the Oregon Produce Company's large ware house his first impression was that he ran foul of some juvenile convention. The whole place seemed to be literally alive with boys. There were big boys and little boys, boys in sailor suits and overalls. Boys of every description, and boys indistinguishable. Each and every boy was attached to a melon, or was in search of one. It is the boys who do the work of transferring the melons from the car to the warehouse. The reporter asked Mr. Gust how he was able to secure so much help, and received a reply which informed him that the boys in La Grande were more easily obtained than melons. "Boys!" Exclaimed Mr. Gust. "Boys grow the year round in this climate, and melon only grow about four months in the year. We don't have any trouble getting boys. There is something about a melon which attracts a boy from the next county. I don't know how it is but these kids know the moment a car gets in town and a crowd of them appear here before the yardmaster can get the car to our platform."

"Early in the season while we were shipping melons from Georgia we lost a car, and notwithstanding a thirty dollar telegraph bill we could not locate it. Finally as a last resort we called in few of the boys who had been waiting and asked them if they could help us out. They went out on the platform turned their faces toward the east, dilated their nostrils and in a few moments returned with the information that the car had got mixed up with a cattle shipment at Omaha. We followed up the tip and found the car. That is all I know about boys. Help yourself to a melon. I've got to watch those kids, they are cracking melons so they can eat them. The boys get the cracked ones."

With this parting sentence he diverged into a bunch of "kids" and began delivering a lecture on how to place a melon on the floor without cracking it. If you don't have a melon for your Sunday lunch it is no fault of the Oregon Produce Company. Two car loads in one day is certainly going some.

IN QUICK REVIEW

The Chicago food inspector has discovered that large quantities of bad eggs are boiled, treated with chemicals and ground up into powder, in which form they go upon the market and into food products. Analysis of these prepared eggs shows typhoid fever and other germs.

Wages have increased of late more than the cost of food, according to figures compiled by the national bureau of labor. In 1905, it is computed an hour's wages would average to buy 1% more food than an hour's wages in 1904.

All Ready For Baby,

The young mother thinks, when she has completed the baby garments that are to clothe the little form. But she is not all ready for baby's coming, unless she has done something more for the baby than merely to prepare his clothes. Many a young mother who goes through hours of pain and suffering wonders why it was not possible to prepare in some way for the baby's advent, and to avoid the agony that seemed almost unendurable. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the one medicine for women which prepares them perfectly, both for the burdens and pleasures of maternity. It prevents the morning sickness from which so many women suffer. It strengthens the whole body, so that there is no nervousness or anxiety. It promotes a healthy appetite and causes refreshing sleep. It gives the mother strength for her trial and makes the baby's advent practically painless. Healthy mothers have healthy children, and it is the general testimony of those who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a preparative for motherhood, that the children were healthier and happier than those born after months of mental misery and physical anguish on the part of the prospective mother.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter absolutely without fee or charge. As chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., Dr. R. V. Pierce, assisted by his staff of nearly a score of physicians, has in the past thirty years and over treated and cured more than half a million sick and suffering women. The testimonials of these cured women are on record. A large number of them were cured when doctors had pronounced a cure impossible and after enduring years of useless suffering. Let no sick women hesitate to take advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer, but write at once and so secure the professional counsel of a specialist in the diseases of women, entirely free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Hoped for Death.

"For the sake of poor suffering women, I feel it my duty to inform you of the great benefit your medicine has given me," writes Mrs. Callie Bowles, of Watts, Tredell Co., N. C. "I was in a most miserable condition when I wrote to you. I had uterine disease so bad I could scarcely walk and suffered such dreadful misery I hoped myself by death. You wrote to me to take your 'Favorite Prescription' and I have taken eleven bottles of it, and two of your 'Pleasant Pellets.' I am entirely well and feel like a new woman. I feel thankful to God and to Dr. Pierce for the blessings I now enjoy. I have a fine big boy, two months old and never got along as well in my life. I can't praise your medicines enough."

Very Thankful.

"I will be very glad to say a few words for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. E. S. Douglas, of Mansville, Brome Co., Quebec. "During the first four months when I looked forward to becoming a mother I suffered very much from nausea and vomiting and I felt so terrible sick I could scarcely eat or drink anything. I hated all kinds of food. At this time I wrote to Dr. Pierce and he told me to get his 'Favorite Prescription' and a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I got a bottle of each and when I had taken them a few days, I felt much better, and when I had taken hardly three parts of each bottle I felt well and could eat as well as any one, and could do my work without any trouble. (I could not do any thing before). I feel very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his medicine and I tell all who tell me they are sick to get these medicines of write to Dr. Pierce."

FUGITIVE MAY BE SECURE

(Scripps News Association) Washington, Sept. 5—Failure to hear from the Sultan of Morocco, regarding Paul O. Stensland, the absconding banker who was president and manager of the Milwaukee Avenue state bank, who is now located at Algiers, leads some to think that he has bribed some of the sultan's officials before the officers arrived to arrest him. The state department officials after a perusal of the authorities of the international law, are of the opinion that if the Sultan wishes to aid Stensland, the fugitive will be perfectly safe. Stensland is known to have $12,000 in Tangier and it is not certain but what he took a vast sum over with him.

MAY NOT INTERFERE

Washington, Sept. 6—A dispatch from Minister Cummer this morning gives the definite information that the Sultan will not hinder the return of Stensland. It is thought that a warship will be sent after him. The matter is now being considered. Minister Cummer has been asked to send further information.

CALIFORNIA STATE CONVENTION

(Scripps News Association) Santa Cruz, Sept. 5—While the delegates to the Republican state convention are certain as to know the San Francisco delegation will stand on the governorship issue, it is well understood that Ruef still intends to throw strong strength to Hayes but Maestrotti, Frank Schmitz and others have been very active the past twenty-four hours, are preparing to present the name of Mayor Schmitz, of San Francisco. Ruef will probably control 120 of the 150 he was supposed to have but he is claiming today that he holds the balance of power. The Ruefer men say that neither Pardee, the present governor, who is a candidate for re-nomination nor Congressman Gillett who is also a candidate can win on the first ballot nor on the subsequent ballots and that they will both soon begin to lose votes which will come to Hayes. It is believed that Ruef and Pardee are getting closer together and the wise ones say that there is some sort of a compact between them.
