M'KINLY WAS WOUNDED 5 YEARS AGO

(Scripps News Association)
Canton O., September 6--Five years ago today in the late afternoon of Sept. 6, 1901, President McKinley was shot and mortally wounded by Leon Czolgoz, ignorant fanatic of anarchists tendencies while attending a public reception at the Temple of Music, on the grounds of the Pan-American Exposition in Buffalo.

President McKinley died of his wound on September 14 at the residence of Mr. John G. Milburn President of the exposition, whose guest he was during his visit to the Fair. The scenes at the time of assassination, the anxious days of the fatal illness of the martyr President, the grief caused by his untimely death through out the country will never be forgotten by the people of this country who loved McKinley as a man full of human kindness, honest and upright and inspired by a deep love for his country. Many large and costly monuments, erected in large and small cities throughout the country to honor the memory of McKinley speak eloquently of the love and esteem which the American people bore their ill-fated magistrate.

The magnificent monument, which will commemorate the martyr President in this, his home city, is not yet completed but it is expected that next year, on Sept. 14, the anniversary of McKinley's death the national monument will be unveiled and dedicated. The monument will cost $50,000 and a fund of an additional $100,000 is now being raised to form an endowment for the purpose of keeping the monument in repair. The imposing monument in Buffalo is completed and so are scores of other monuments in other cities less pretensions, perhaps, but no less eloquent tokens of the peoples love for the departed soldier-statesman.

GRAND ARMY DAY AT LEWISTON

Lewiston, Me., Sept. 6--Today is Grand Army Day at the State Fair in this city and many hundreds of veterans of the Civil War, many of them accompanied by their wives, have come here to take part in the celebration arranged for today. Every person wearing a Grand Army button or badge, or some regimental emblem was admitted free of charge to the fair grounds.

At noon a free luncheon was served at the big dining hall on the grounds. This afternoon there will be a big parade of veterans and after the parade the veterans will be the guests of the management of the fair and free to everything the fair offers in the way of attractions.

There will also be a campfire with speeches and music at one of the large halls and supper will be served to the veterans in the evening. The parade will be led by General Joshua Chamberlain of Brunswick and Gen. Charles Matlocks of Portland will be the principal speaker at the Camp fire.

GEN. CORBIN AFTER GOSSIPERS

(Scripps News Association)
Washington, D. C., Sept. 6--Lieutenant Gen. H. C. Corbin is determined to "go after" the army officers who have been submitting themselves to newspaper interview, with the result of charging that he and other prominent army officers have been using official facilities in Manila for the embellishment of their private establishments. For a long time it was the custom in Manila for the quartermaster shops to do odd jobs for army officers, all of it in the way of improving the government quarters occupied by officers and their families. It was in the interest of household comfort and domestic sanitation, qualities which could not have been improved by resorting to private facilities in that city. This labor did not represent an expenditure of the public money for personal benefit, and whatever was done on the quarters in the way of improvement on the exterior or interior has been for the benefit of any who chanced to occupy the buildings at that time and since. Gen. Corbin feels the criticisms which have been made, and he has asked the War Department to ascertain from certain army officers who have expressed themselves, just what they said, and if he finds there has been an injustice done to him he intends to seek redress through official channels.
