LOCAL ITEMS

Remember the farewell dance at the Commercial Club hall next Saturday night. Rev. U. H. Gibbs will hold service in the Ladd Canyon school house on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Ed Coolidge and daughter Lorna arrived last evening from Salt Lake City where they have spent the past three months.

Miss Susie Deal of La Grande, one of the newly elected teachers arrived yesterday to take up her work in the Baker City schools.—Baker City Herald.

The Misses Esma and Gussie Sawtell of Pendleton are being entertained today by Mrs. C. H. Conkey and this evening they will be at luncheon at Dr. and Mrs. N. Molitor, with others who recently returned from a camping party at Teal Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Oliver returned last evening from attending the Irrigation Congress at Boise City. They report it a success from every standpoint. Being attended by representative men from every section of the United States. The session will close Saturday.

Mr. A. C. Huntington who went with the La Grande delegation writes that he will accompany the excursion into Southern Idaho where they will view the government project and several large private irrigation schemes. He expects to return Monday night.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Moore are now visiting relatives in Kirksville Missouri and after a visit at Kansas City they will return to La Grande presumably the 25th of this month. The doctor and Mrs. Moore according to communication sent to friends in this city are having a great time and will return rested in body and mind.

C. M. Blevens of Cove was a La Grande business visitor this morning. Mr. Blevens belongs to that class of progressive farmers who always have something to sell when the market is right. This time he brought a load of choice fruit and vegetables which he says there is practically no market. Mr. Blevens left a sample of plums and after careful test applied by every member of the Observer it was the popular belief that it was the market that was wrong and not the fruit.

THE TIME MAY COME

When a better cigar will be made for the money than the C. B. but not in your generation, my dear sir. There are no better cigars made for the money this day. Try one and be convinced. Don't finish the box if the first one doesn't suit you—back goes the money if you don't like the C. B. cigar.

C. E. HACKMAN,
Phone Red 1381

Cor. Adams Avenue and Greenwood

County Superintendent Wells returned yesterday morning from La Grande where he had been to attend the Union county teachers institute. He reports a very successful meeting under the dictatorship of Superintendent Bragg of Union County.—Pendleton Tribune.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

Manager Osburn is arranging his list preparatory to the issuing of a new subscribers' directory, and requests all subscribers who desire a change of insertion or who are contemplating a change of location in the near future to notify him at once in order that the new list may be as correct as possible. The La Grande Exchange now numbers over 700 subscribers and it is no small task to get out a new list.

SIMMONS BACK AGAIN

C. B. Simmons, manager of the Parr-Simmons company has returned from an extended trip through the middle states. While away he visited the leading cities of Montana, North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming and Idaho. In a majority of these states he found business prosperous. Mr. Simmons had his eye on the fruit markets during the trip and reports that the market this year demands the large crops now harvested on the Pacific coast.

FIRST CAR WILL RUN

By Friday evening, two days before the time set by the Salem Council, the line of the Oregon Electric Railway Co. will be ready for operation between the Capital City and Chemawa. Two miles of track remained to be laid Tuesday morning, and this is being placed at the rate of half a mile a day. Cars were operated over the first two miles for the purpose of testing the wires and equipment yesterday. The 72-pound steel of course, did not come in for its share of the test, as the cars are too light.

GIRL WANTED—For general house work. Small family. Good wages. Inquire of Mrs. A. L. Richardson.

PEAR PACKERS WANTED

Twenty pear packers wanted, not later than next Friday by the Grande Ronde Valley Fruit Growers Union. Inquire at secretary's office.
