JOSEPH MAN IS MISSING

J. Frank Cutler and Jim Pennelle, an old prospector aged about 60 years, who have been prospecting in this section for several years, left Joseph about four weeks ago. They separated just below the forks of the Minam with the understanding that they would meet Wednesday, Aug. 22, at Sam Dilly's cabin on the Lostine Fork of the Wallowa.

Mr. Cutler was at the appointed rendezvous on Aug. 22 and waited five days for Mr. Pennelle, but he failed to put in an appearance.

Mr. Cutler, after a diligent search could find no trace of him and while there is no chance of Mr. Pennelle getting lost as he is familiar with every ravine in this section it may be possible that he has met with an accident.

When he left Mr. Cutler he had a bay mule and white horse with him. If any one should find any trace of Mr. Pennelle or outfit they will confer a favor by telephoning J. F. Cutler, Joseph. —Joseph Herald.
