BAKER COUNTY MINER MEETS GRUESOME DEATH BY TRAIN

Crushed, torn and hacked beyond all resemblance to human form, and strewn along the track for miles, searchers yesterday found the body of Ed Welch, a roving miner from the Flagstaff mine, who in an effort to beat his way on an O. R. & N. train, met death Saturday night.

Pieces of the body were found Sunday morning by the crew of an eastbound freight which arrived here between 8 and 9 o'clock. Chief Jackson was notified and with Alf Currey acting as coroner in the absence of Dr. Ison, a search was made for the remaining pieces of the dead man.

Welch was killed near a crossing of the Haines road four miles north of town. Pieces of the body were found scattered along the track on this side of the crossing to about half a mile north of it. These were picked up and brought to Baker by the searchers. One toe was found two miles and a quarter north of the crossing on the road to Haines.

Welch had been working in the Flagstaff mine about three weeks. He was a tramp miner who had roamed all over the world, and after having tired of life at the Flagstaff came to Baker City Saturday, sold his bedding for two bits, and some time Saturday night started for the coast.

At the crossing near where the accident occurred the trains slow up, because of killing stock. Welch, riding the rods it is believed, had an insecure position, and as the train started to slow up attempted to change to one more safe. In some way he lost his hold and falling partially under the wheels was ground, bit by bit to pieces.

Not a feature of the man remained when the body was picked up. There was no head, there was no face, nothing but shreds of grimy flesh, and chunks of dirt-covered muscle.

The dead man was about 45 years of age. He was a native of Ireland but had traveled all over the world as an adventurous miner. He had mined in Africa, in Australia and in all the western states. As was identified through a card he carried introducing him to J. H. Connor, the Sumpter saloon man, the card being signed by G. C. Thomas. It was the only mark of identification on the body.

HEARST PLACED ON PEDESTAL

(Scraps News Association)

New York, Sept. 11—The State Convention of the Independence League will open at Carnegie Hall this afternoon and if every detail of the plans are carried out, it will before adjourning nominate a full state ticket with William Hearst as candidate for the Governorship. There will be about 1,600 delegates at the convention who were not elected at primaries, but appointed by the Independence League organizations in the various assembly districts. There will be one delegate for every 1000 votes and major fraction thereof, cast in the different assembly districts for the office of Governor in the last general election in 1904.

Hearst has completed control of the convention and it is a foregone conclusion that he will be nominated for Governor. It is practically assumed that Justice W. J. Gaynor will not be a candidate against Hearst. The state convention leaders know Justice Gaynor's position and have been informed that his name must not be used to obtain delegates to the convention.

According to the program mapped out by Mr. Hearst the convention will nominate him for governor and at a subsequent mass meeting to be held at Madison Square Garden, the nomination is to be ratified and the nominee will formally accept the place at the head of the ticket and, incidentally, fire the first shot in his campaign, by delivering an address, fully explaining his position and the platform upon which he expects to be elected.

Mr. Hearst and his counselors had judiciously selected the date of the Independence League convention for a day one week ahead of the Democratic convention, hoping that the good showing made by Hearst in the Independence League convention would impress the Democrats and make it easier for the Hearst managers to stampede the members into endorsing Hearst's nomination for the governorship. It is announced that Hearst's platform, which also is the platform of the Independence League stands for public ownership of such public utilities as under private ownership subject the people to incompetent service and increasing robbery. It stands for antagonism to official and other corruption, grafting in every form, and fight to the bitter end against all trusts, political machines and boss-rule.

Max Ihmensen as president of the convention of Independent league which met to nominate Hearst for Governor of New York, at noon named Hearst's name, after which there were several minutes of steady applause. Will Glenn was temporary chairman and delivered an anti-boss speech. The convention appointed committees and adjourned until tonight.

The Two Archers.

Love and Death are both depicted as archers. When Love sets his arrow in a woman's heart and she turns and follows, seeking healing of her hurt, could there be aught sadder than that she should be led by very Love into the ambush where Death, arrow on string, waits to plant his deadly shaft in her breast? Yet so it is. Time and again Love proves to be Death's decoy. And often when the grim archer fails to inflict mortal hurt, he leaves the suffering woman to creep through life like a broken-winged bird.

Why does love lead to suffering? Many a woman has asked that question pitiously and passionately. She has forsaken father and mother to cleave unto her husband in the belief that so she was achieving woman's highest happiness. But instead of happiness she has found misery, struggled with it until struggle seemed useless, and at last has come to accept her misery as the "cross" laid upon women who love and marry.

There is no real reason why almost every wife and mother should not enjoy sound health. The cause of her misery lie in diseases which affect the delicate, womanly organism. Disagreeable drains are carrying away the vital force. Inflammation has lighted its fire for slow torment. Ulceration is eating into the tender tissues. Female weakness is making life a daily martyrdom. Is it any wonder that the nerves are racked, that appetite fails, and night, which should bring rest, brings only restlessness and troubled dreams?

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the womanly diseases which undermine the general health. It dries the drains, puts out the fire of inflammation, heals the ulcerated tissues and cures female weakness. In a word, it makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Favorite Prescription" is a true temperance medicine. It contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, or other narcotic. Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free of charge. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. In a little more than thirty years Dr. Pierce, assisted by his staff of nearly a score of physicians, has treated and cured over half a million women. Write, without fear or fee, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

HAD GIVEN UP HOPE.

"It is with feelings of sincere gratitude that I again write to you," says Mrs. Harry A. Brown, of Orono, Penobscot County, Maine. "I wrote to you concerning my health last spring (I think it was in June), and you advised me to take your Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery, which I did according to directions, and continued taking them for five months. I took nine bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' six of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and four vials of Dr. Pierce's Pellets. My disease was displacement and ulceration of the uterus, and I was in a terrible condition with pain and weakness, and had given up all hopes of ever being well again. Had doctored with four different doctors within four months, and instead of getting better was growing weaker all the time. I decided to try your medicines, as I had heard of the many cures resulting from their use. I bought five bottles and felt so much better after using them that I kept on until I am well as ever in my life, and to Dr. Pierce all the praise is due.

"Before I began taking your medicine I only weighed 120 pounds. I now weigh 170 pounds. I gained forty pounds in six months. I shall doctor no more with doctors, as it is only a waste of money. No matter what my trouble is, I shall write to Dr. Pierce every time. I am now in perfect health, thanks to Dr. Pierce."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-bound book, or for cloth binding send 41 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
