MORE FRENZIED FINANCE

Collier's Weekly has an article in the current issue exposing the high charges and wasteful management of industrial insurance. The facts about the Prudential and the Metropolitan insurance companies show that they are no less rotten than the Equitable Society, New York Life and Mutual. United States Senator Dryden draws $95,000 a year salary as president of the Prudential, and also gets 220 per cent dividends on the amount of money he has actually invested in the company. The Prudential would have to have "The strength of Gibraltar" to stand such a drain. The other companies are in the same boat.

The local real estate market has shown considerable activity this week. This applies to both city and county property.

This is the kind of a morning to make one think about their winter's wood in the event that have not already secured it.

That Portland employe of the gas company who has stolen $15,000 this year can put up the plea that he took the money from thieves anyway.

The crowd to meet banker Stensland when the authorities arrive with him in Chicago may not equal a Bryan crowd in numbers, but it will be at least equally anxious to see the returning traveler.

About 70 fishermen lost their lives off the mouth of the Columbia river this salmon season. The Royal Chinook salmon exact a heavy toll from their adventurous capturers every year.

The Republican majority in Maine was cut down from 26,800 in 1904 to less than 8,000 this year, but Littlefield feels pretty good at that. Gompers made a strong fight, but the Maine congressman won by a narrow margin.

Order a few copies of the OBSERVER'S industrial edition and show your distant friends the sort of a country you are living in. Call at this office and leave a list of names together with five cents for each address and we will mail the papers. The edition will be out next week.

In the new Russian game laws there is no time limit on the open season for Jews. Most Russians appear to be hunting, too. It is a pity the oppressed Hebrews do not get arms and retaliate.

Help give the Grande Ronde Valley publicity by sending a few copies of the OBSERVER'S industrial edition to distant friends. A copy sent to your old home town may bring us a new resident. All this Valley needs is more people.

The Central Railway of Oregon is laying rails between Union and Hot Lake and Cove. The men back of this road mean business. La Grande will be reached early next year. When completed, the road will run from Summerville to Pine Valley, taking in all important parts of this Valley.

Judging from the many and various newspaper and magazine photographs of William Jennings Brynn made since his return abroad, he is wearing perpetually "The smile that won't come off." The Republican National Committee is confident, however, that it will be able to change his expression two years hence.

Notwithstanding all reports from Washington to the effect, that Uncle Sam is purely disinterested the Cuban revolution will not bear close inspection for it is evident that if occasion requires immediate action, things are being arranged whereby there will be no loss of time in preparing for it.

Time makes queer bedfellows among the politicians. Think of it, this evening W. J. Bryan and Col. Henry Watterson, of Kentucky, speak on the same issues from the same platform. Had some one predicted such possibility a few years ago and the Col. would have immediately stricken his name from the subscription list of the Louisville Courier.

The sentiment toward socialism is certainly growing. The Appeal to Reason, of Girard Kansas now has a circulation of nearly a quarter of a million. It is socialism personified from first column to last. Without the assistance of a period of national hard times, however, there is little chance of the Socialist party acquiring effective strength, and hard times are a long way off.

Only 82 years old

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by Newlin Drug Co. Price 50c.

A LITTLE TALK ON ICE CREAM SODA

NOT BETTER THAN THE BEST
BUT BETTER THAN THE REST

To maintain the reputation we have acquired for supplying the needs of our many patrons in every department, a reputation we point to with pardonable pride, we want, now, to advise you that we have opened our soda fountain with a new line of crushed fruits and fruit juice which excel any which we have ever had, and while we may occasionally find a party who has never tried one of our delicious ICE CREAM SODAS we find a hundred who have, and do, and always will, because they want the best and appreciate a fine article. We have some new flavors this year which are going to be of universal favor on account of their delicate flavors. Hop you will kindly favor us with an early call, so we may show you. We are respectfully,
