TO TEST PISTOLS FOR ARMY

(Scripta News Association)
Springfield, Mass., Sept. 12--The competition to determine what revolver and automatic pistol shall be adopted by the United States Government for use by the army, will be opened at the United States Armory in this city this afternoon. The chief of ordnance has decided the amunition, which is a cartridge of 45 caliber with a jacketed lead bullet weighing 230 grains. There will be two types of the same cartridge one using 5.02 and the other 7.02 grains of smokeless powder.
The cartridge for the automatic pistol will have no rim as the shell is extracted by the recoil.

GUY IS RECOVERING

William Guy, the brakeman who sustained a broken back three months ago in a railway accident near Baker City, and has been in St. Vincent's hospital in this city ever since, has recovered sufficiently to occasionally ride about the hospital in a rolling chair. Notwithstanding this improvement a broken back is considered by surgeons to be incurable, and the doctors attending Mr. Guy say he will never recover. He will be an invalid all his life, and it is but a question of how long his vitality can ward off the death that is inevitable. Though the patient realizes that he will never be well again, and that death is only a question of time, he is cheerful and bears his suffering with the greatest fortitude.—Portland Telegram.

HOP PICKING BEGINS

The West Side Enterprise of Independence says of the opening of the hoppick-ing season:

Twelve thousand active pickers, 24,000 flexible arms; 120,000 nimble fingers are now at work in the Independence hop fields. The body of pickers is now here though there are still some coming in daily.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the streets of Independence were alive with the arriving pickers. The streets are by no means deserted yet, but most of the pickers have found their way to the various hopyards and are living in the tented cities in the fields and groves. Every large hopyard now represents a live-awake village of 200 to 1000 inhabitants.

There is no lack of life around the hop-yard cities. The stores, amusement halls, merry-go-rounds, music, singing, horse racing, and other diversions serve to enliven the scenes and lend a charm that tends to fascinate people with hop-yard life.

Picking, too, has begun in most of the yards, though not all, and at 50 cents a box many have already started their little hop-picking bank account.

Though the country seems to be alive with people who have been coming in one continuous procession the past week, the yards are not overrun with pickers. In fact a number of the smaller yards are looking out for more pickers.
