CROPS A LITTLE SHORT

D. J. Stall, a prominent valley farmer was in the city today and says that his crop this year is a little short and he finds that the same condition prevails on all the ranches of the county. The crops are of good quality but not up to the average. But this condition prevails throughout the Inland Empire wheat belt as there is heavy shortage in Umatilla county and Washington.--Baker City Herald.

ALMOST COMPLETED

The immense fuel oil tank being built at Arlington by the O. R. & N. is nearly completed. When it is finished the "local" passengers now run between Portland and Biggs will be run to Arlington.

WILL EXHIBIT

The La Grande sugar factory will have on exhibit at the Umatilla county fair an exhibit of sugar beets, and the sugar in its various processes of manufacture.
