HORRIBLE DEATH OF SMALL BOY

Alva the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Rhodes, of Pendleton met a horrible death near his home on Alta street yesterday afternoon. In an attempt to climb on a passing wagon heavily loaded with barley, he slipped and fell under the wagon, the hind wheel passing across his neck. Without ever having uttered a cry he was dead. The driver of the wagon, did not see the boy or know anything of the accident until his attention was attracted by the outcry of a witness who was standing near and who was first to reach the lifeless corpse of the boy. No blame could possibly be attached to the driver, as the boy was attempting to climb onto his wagon without his knowledge.

MOODY NOT GUILTY

Not guilty was the verdict of the jury after being out fifteen minutes last evening in the State case against Henry Moody on trial for three days on the charge of rape upon the person of Lattan Waldron a 14 year old girl living in Eagle Valley.

The case went to the jury a little before 6 o'clock and the verdict was soon returned in this notorious case.

The peculiar laws of Oregon and this particular statute which was passed at the instance of B. F. Alley a former newspaper man of Baker City, are blamed for such expensive operations as this.

Common sense, and good judgement under common law, it is said by competent judges would regulate such affairs in a jiffy.—Baker City Herald.

A Refractionist of Uncommon Ability Makes Examination Free

Dr. W. H. Keating, the eye specialist of Salt Lake, is being kept busy. Many people are taking advantage of this noted specialist's visit here to have proper glasses fitted. The doctor grinds every pair of glasses he fits, insuring a perfect fit, and those who have gotten glasses from him consider his charges very reasonable. The doctor is not a stranger in the city as he has been making his yearly visits here for the last five years. The doctor guarantees any glasses fitted by him to be entirely satisfactory and we can vouch for the fact that he is thoroughly reliable.
