A UNIQUE WEDDING

The marriage of Mr. John Flesherman to Miss Della Gutridge took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gutridge, on Island Avenue, Wednesday, September 12.

The rooms were decorated with Sweet Peas, white Astors, and Asparagus, all of which exhibited much skill in arrangement. The arbor was built of Chrysanthemums, Sweet Peas and Asparagus.

The dining room was decorated to correspond with the other rooms, with the addition of a beautiful trailing vine, which gave the whole decoration scheme an effect of a vineyard. All along the vine were caskets filled with fruit.

At four o'clock, while the wedding march was being played, the bride dressed in white and the groom in the conventional black, were ushered in, followed by the bride's maid, Mrs. Lee Thompson, and the groom's best man, Mr. Lee Thompson. The nuptials were performed by Rev. O. H. King, of the Central church. After the pretty ceremony was ended the guests were served to a sumptuous lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Flesherman will reside on Mr. Flesherman's fruit farm, near this city.

MARRIED

LEWIS-TAYLOR—In this city, Sunday, September 16, 1906, at the home of the bride, H. P. Lewis and Mayme Taylor, Rev. E. B. Hays, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating.

The ceremony took place at twelve thirty, with only the members of the two families present. Following the wedding the guests were invited to partake of a dainty wedding dinner. Following which the bride and groom left for the east where they will visit friends a month or so, after which they will return to this city, where they will make their future home.

The groom is one of La Grande's pioneer insurance men and is universally respected and liked. The bride has for the past several years conducted the leading photograph gallery in this city and has many friends who are pleased to extend hearty congratulations. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Coolidge of this city.

ANTHROPEN CASKETS

Baker City's ministers oppose the ceremony of taking a last farewell of departed friends within the churches. The ministerial association yesterday passed resolutions opposing the custom, which is charged with causing much needless grief, and the association has pledged itself never to consent to opening the caskets whenever funeral services shall be held in the respective churches of the members.

G. H. POWERS SAYS

All right, keep right on paying the other fellow 15% until he has the price of the property in rent and still keep the house. He can stand it if you can, but your duty is to buy a home and the rent will turn the other fellow out in a few years and you in as owner. Two parties answered my distress sign last week and now will not let any for sale shingle hang over their door. C. F. Johnson from Portland now owns an acre in Pleasant Home and new five room house. Only paid me $1000 for it. Also Mrs. E. E. Stotts a fine up-to-date cottage and two lots close in, a $1250 snap. Only a few left. Better come in and see me, or you'll miss me when I'm gone. THE BROKEN LAND MAN.

A tragic finish

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vancouver, B. C., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold, but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at Newlin Drug Co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
