CHILD EATS PINK PILLS AND DIES

Cordia Tenley Holbrook. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holbrook who reside on Monroe Street in this city, died suddenly on Monday afternoon Sept. 17th at 3 o'clock. The little ones death came in an unusual way. While playing about the home she got hold of a small bottle of pink pills which were given by a physician in Oklahoma a few days ago as the family departed for Oregon. The pills had been used and had proved very effective as a mild purgation. But the baby getting the bottle in hand sat down and ate a quantity of them. When the mother discovered her she said, "Daughter, What are you doing?" "Mamma, I'm eating pills."

No serious fears were entertained until the baby went into convulsions, though later physicians were called but reached the little sufferer too late. She was dead as the Doctor came.

The little unfortunate was born in Tecumseh Oklahoma, November 17, 1903 and came with the family to La Grande one week ago. Thus among strangers the sad affliction came. But Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook register a profound appreciation for the sincere sympathy and kindness of neighbors and friends. The remains were interred at the Odd Fellows Cemetery after the funeral from the home conducted by Pastor W. H. Gibson of the Baptist church.

A Refractionist of Uncommon Ability Makes Examination Free

Dr. W. H. Keating, the eye specialist of Salt Lake, is being kept busy. Many people are taking advantage of this noted specialist's visit here to have proper glasses fitted. The doctor grinds every pair of glasses he fits, insuring a perfect fit, and those who have gotten glasses from him consider his charges very reasonable. The doctor is not a stranger in the city as he has been making his yearly visits here for the last five years. The doctor guarantees any glasses fitted by him to be entirely satisfactory and we can vouch for the fact that he is thoroughly reliable.
