SUGAR IS SUGAR

Superintendent Taylor, says that while he never makes a practice of betting he will wager that if two bowls of beet sugar and one bowl of cane sugar are put in front of any person in this valley or elsewhere they cannot pick out the bowl of cane sugar. He would make the same wager on one bowl of each except for the fact that in that case a wild guess by a blind man would be an equal chance. Sugar is sugar no matter whether it be made from beets, cane or the sap of the maple tree, and when pure sugar is absolutely indistinguishable one from the other.

RECORDER'S COURT

Charles Martin was up before the Recorder's court this morning upon a drunk and disorderly charge. He contributed the usual ten spot toward the city's good road movement.

LOCAL ITEMS

George Krieger is back from a short trip to the mountains.

An automobile party from Union visited La Grande today.

Mrs. Anna Brooks left for Walla Walla this morning, where she will spend two weeks visiting relatives.

Mr. A. W. Nelson of the Observer force is indisposed today but expects to be on hand as usual tomorrow.

Mrs. Grace Barry has been spending the past week in Spokane, as the guest of former Wisconsin schoolmates.

The foundation for Fred Geibals new residence is about completed this is to be a modern and well arranged cottage.

W. A. Maxwell, editor of the Oregon Scout accompanied by his estimable wife drove over from Union this afternoon and spent a few hours.

Mrs. Laura Stults is in the city this week visiting friends, and transacting business matters. Her home is now at Burke Idaho.

Mrs. P. Garvey was in the city yesterday trading, she returned to her home at Northfork last evening accompanied by Gertrude and Susie Ferguson.

Our merchants, one and all are preparing for a greatly increased fall trade. La Grande will have unusually large stocks of the very latest creations.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Campbell and children, Robert and Gladys, left last evening for Tulsa, Oklahoma, their home. They have spent the summer with their son, Roy Campbell, near La Grande.

Miss Stella Holmes is making a personal collection of photographic views of the Grande Ronde scenery, aided by Miss Bessie Burke. Both have an acute attack of "kodakitis."

Elder Mayfield of Elgin returned this morning after spending the night in the city. He states that Elgin is certainly enjoying her portion of the general prosperity which has been equivalent to Union county.

There remains considerable grain to be threshed in this county in fact there are a few fields that have not yet been cut. However every day of sunshine like the present means thousands of bushels in the sack.

Attorney H. T. Williams is in the Recorder's office today in the absence of Recorder Snook who is ill. Horace was city recorder for many years and it looks like an olden time to see him in charge of the books again.

Machinist, Walter Furgenson took engine 508, which was in the recent Durkes wreck to Portland to be repaired. Engine 200 which was also in the wreck furnished motive power. It is expected that it would require about four days to reach their destination.

The Weston Normal school opened Monday with an enrollment of 125 students and this will be considerably increased during the next few weeks. This is the only normal in eastern Oregon, and is deserving of the generous patronage.

Miss Louise Abegg, who came to La Grande after the earthquake had shook up California, has mailed several copies of the OBSERVER'S Industrial edition to acquaintances in San Francisco. There are no tremblers of record in Oregon, and the Grande Ronde Valley is the state's garden spot.

The trains are all late today, but La Grande people are used to that. It was an old colored woman who answered the protest of a little daughter of her employer in much the same way. The "aunt" was skinning live eels, and the little girl suggested that the process must be painful to the eels. "Why, bress your heart honey," said the darkey. "I been skinnin' eels dis way for forty years. Deys used to it."

MARRIED

SHEETS—McMASTER—in this city, Wednesday, September 19, 1906, Mr. J. F. Sheets and Miss Jennett May McMaster, J. C. Henry, County Judge, officiating.

The young people are honored and respected by all who know them. Mr. Sheets is a son of Mr. A. F. Sheets, a Union county pioneer and the bride is a daughter of Mr. Samuel McMaster, a well known citizen of Union. The happy couple will leave this evening for their home at Union and will carry with them the well wishes and hearty congratulations of a large circle of friends in this city.

AN EMINENT PRACTITIONER

Dr. Francis Moormeister, a German University man, has located at La Grande in partnership with Dr. H. Voip.

Dr. Moormeister is a graduate of the University of Munich, Germany, and has practiced his profession in Berlin, Germany, was house-surgeon in the German Hospital of London, England, and was surgeon in the German Hospital of Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic.

Dr. Moormeister has arrived in this country but recently and has located permanently in La Grande.

HEATING STOVES

It is time to think about heating stoves. I have a nice line to select from, all sizes and prices. If you are thinking of getting a stove call and examine them, and I am sure you will find one that will suit you. My magazine coal heater is a wonder, it is wonderful how it will save coal. Try and you will be convinced.
