ANOTHER LARGE BRICK BUILDING

Today the deeds whereby the property on the southern corner of Adams avenue and Fir streets became the property of Julius Roesch consisting of the corner lot owned by W. R. Hamilton and the two adjoining lots owned by G. G. Bunte. Mr. J. L. Mars, the well known hustler has engineered this deal. The consideration is rumored to be $6,400. Mr. Roesch is in Portland but Mr. Mars who is in position to know, states that the entire property 90 ft. by 110 is to be cornered by a two story brick, steam heated and modern in every respect. This fall the excavating is to be and the cement cellar and foundation done, everything in readiness for the brick masons in the early spring. The lower floor is to be occupied by stores and the upstairs for rooms. The building will cost $35,000.

This will add greatly to the general appearance of Adams avenue and marks the expansion of the business on a large scale to another block. Mr. Roesch is one of La Grande's shrewd wide awake businessmen. His investments in the past have proven remunerative and it is easily foreseen that this will be no exception.
