ON NEXT MONDAY EVENING

At the Christian church in this city, the music loving people will be afforded a rare treat in the way of a piano recital, consisting of a number of strictly high class vocal and instrumental selections.

Louis P. Bruce, famous pianist of Portland, Oregon, will render in a most artistic and pleasing manner the music of such well known composers as Litz, Chopin and others.

The always popular, Mr. C. P. Ferrin, the local tenor will assist in the recital, with a few of his favorite vocal numbers, which will be accompanied by Mr. Bruce on the Pianola Piano, thus demonstrating the marvelous capabilities of the instrument.

The people of La Grande should consider themselves very fortunate in being favored with a recital of such high quality. Admission Free.

Weber Piano used.

BISHOP WARREN ON EDUCATION

Rev. Bishop H. W. Warren himself a great educator and who with his wife has given over $100,000 to the Denver University writes the following letter to Rev. B. F. Meredith the Secretary of the board of ministers.

"Methodism is intensely educational. It has 50,000 youths in its schools in India. Wherever it goes it is an inspiration for the best development.

An academy is greatly needed in Idaho conference. The public schools do not supply the needs of the country. A place is needed where the whole nature physical, intellectual and spiritual can be developed. I congratulate the state on so auspicious a beginning."

Cordially yours,
Henry W. Warren.

Sept. 8, 1906.

This institution opens its doors to the public Tuesday next, September 25, at which time will occur the first general meeting of the trustees of whom three are residents of La Grande, Rev. B. F. Meredith, Mr. G. H. Currey and Rev. J. D. Gillan.
