STRANGER IN THE CITY, DEAD

Last night about midnight, the man who yesterday was removed from a saloon on Jefferson Avenue to the Blue Mountain hotel in a critical condition, died. The cause of death was pneumonia.

When he arrived on the train yesterday he went immediately to one of the saloons where he remained for several hours. When his illness was noticed, Marshal Rayburn had him removed to the Blue Mountain hotel and placed in a room under medical attention. However, pneumonia had its grip on the man, and by midnight he was dead.

His name is Tom Sullivan and had been recently employed near Hilgard.

A NEW ASSESSMENT ROLL

The re-assessment of Union county, which was necessitated by the new version of the exemption law, will be completed tonight. The city of La Grande was the last to be worked and now that it is nearly re-assessed, it means that the whole county has been re-canvassed. While the assessment roll is finished, the footings have not been ascertained, and will not be until the board of equalization meets and acts on the new assessment roll. As that board meets next Monday it is thought that by the end of next week Union county's valuation will be known.

The board consisting of County Assessor, Norton, County Judge Henry and County Clerk Gilham.
