Frank S. Biallie, the well known Sumpter mining man is in the city today.

Mrs. G. S. Reeves of Cove is visiting Baker City friends.

G. G. Latimer, is attending the fair at Baker City this week.

Sheriff F. P. Childers was a Baker City visitor.

L. A. Wright of North Powder was in the city this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cochran of Union, were in La Grande last evening. They visited at Elgin yesterday.

W. J. Wade of Baker City transacted business in La Grande yesterday and this morning.

M. and Mrs. Julius Roesch and daughter have returned from a trip to Portland and coast cities.

Mrs. S. N. Bolton and Mrs. Lydia Reeves returned from Union this morning where they have been attending the W. C. T. U. convention.

Mrs. Haug, nee Ida Robinson, who has been in the city the past few days visiting her mother, returned this morning to her home at Roosevelt, Idaho.

Mrs. B. G. Fritts left this morning for North Powder, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. George Hansen, a few days. Mr. Fritts will follow her in the morning.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Johnson lost a valuable vest pocket memorandum book. He will pay a liberal reward for its return. His name is in the book.

Mr. Ed. Staples expects to move his handsome residence to the corner of Pine and Adams avenue, to close the business portion of the city.

County Commissioner J. M. Seider of Cove was a La Grande visitor this morning. Mr. Seider wears a smile because the crop in Cove is above the average and the rest of the county just as good.

Mr. J. G. Barton of Ottumwa, Iowa, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Jennie Gilham. This is his first visit to the Pacific coast and of course is naturally surprised at the vastness of every thing.

H. E. Gilham, a former La Grande boy, but now in the real estate business in Seattle, is visiting his mother and others, in this city. Harry says Seattle is growing bigger every day.

Mrs. C. H. Norris, who has been in the city for the past month while her husband Charles H. Norris is on the Pendleton-Huntington passenger run of the O. R. & N. returned yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Campell and daughter Miss Pearl Rork arrived last evening from Houston, Texas and will visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. J. Ireland. It is possible that the doctor who is an osteopath, will open an office in this city.

David Stewart and P. E. Foley returned last evening from the Minam where they have spent several days in fishing and hunting. They report that the region about the Minam is well covered with snow now.

Mr. and Mrs. Si Titus, of Eugene, who have been visiting Mr. Titus' sister, Mrs. James McClure, left this morning for their home. Mr. Titus states that he is well pleased with the appearance of the Grande Ronde valley and might some time conclude to return to this county and locate.

Hon. J. A. Uish, of Coenos, Wash., arrived this morning, after attending the State Republican convention as a delegate, and also had the honor of being re-nominated for the legislature to represent Lewis county. Mr. Uish before returning will visit his mining property up Grande Ronde river.

Charles A. Dunn is on the street this morning with a fine new two horse truck and is therefore a full fledged truck and transfere man. His truck is bran splinter new and shines like the morning sun. His team, a splendid span of sixteen hundred pound grays is resplendent in their new harness. The outfit is certainly a dandy and therefore Mr. Dunn is surely prepared for both heavy and light hauling of any description.

BARE'S TRIAL SET

The trial of John Bare, charged with the murder of Brick Johnson, has been set for October 24, at which time a special court will try the alleged murderer at Enterprise. In the mean time he will be kept in the Enterprise jail. The indictment charges him with murder in the first degree.

STOCKMEN TAKE NOTICE

To the cattle and horsemen of Sumnerville and vicinity and those stockmen using the Wenaha Reserve. There will be a meeting on Saturday, Oct. 6, 1906, at 10 o'clock a. m. at Sumnerville, Ore., of the stockmen for the purpose of arranging for a round up of stock on the reserve and also to perfect a permanent organization of the stockmen.

W. O. W. ENJOYS BIG FEED

Last night was the banquet meeting of the season for the W. O. W. When the meeting was called at eight o'clock, the hall was filled. After the initiation of three new members the meeting adjourned to the banquet room where Tom Johnson and M. H. Watson, as chef and assistant, respectfully had prepared a bounteous feast. After the members, new and old had pacified their craving for the many good things good to eat, they returned to the council hall where they considered and transacted other regular business.

It was just at midnight when the "Welcome gates" were opened to let the members return to their homes, each and every one feeling that he had spent a most enjoyable evening.

BEEF HARVEST IN FULL BLAST

Chas. Mizuroski left this morning for Union where he will put one hundred more Japs at work in the beet harvest field. The Japanese contractor said this morning that yesterday he started eighty Japs at work near La Grande and today will see that one hundred more commence work in the neighborhood of Union. The recent rains delayed the harvest a few days but now that the valley is blessed with balmy weather, the work will progress with utmost dispatch. Additional help will be put in the fields as fast as it can be secured.

JUDGE EAKIN RESIGNS

Circuit Judge Robert Eakin, who will assume the high office of supreme judge on January 1, has placed his resignation with the governor, to take effect December 31. This will no doubt cause some speculation as to whom the governor will appoint as his successor, also whether or not the governor will announce his successor in advance of the expiration of Judge Eakin's term.

ICE-COLD AND PURE

We have just received a car load of fresh pure artificial ice which we will sell to our customers at the Creamery. We will not be able to deliver orders but will be pleased to furnish customers at the creamery.

REASON

Why go and buy a ready made suit when I can make you one just as cheap. Measured by an experienced tailor as it takes years to learn how to take measures and give a man a fit and a good suit. How can a clerk with no experience except to go by a book form, give you what you pay for?

OFF FOR THE VARSITY

The opening of the State university at Eugene next Monday is attracting several young people from this city. Tomorrow Joel Richardson returns to take up his sophomore work. Earl Kilpatrick, who took special work in the Hockenberry school last year, will also leave tomorrow for Eugene and while really only a Freshman will have second year standing. Miss Pearl Huff left this morning and will take up a musical course there. James Neil is already at Eugene.

These students have all excelled in their respective classes in the high school here, and it is certain that they will create a precedent there that will speak well for La Grande's schools.

SPECIAL RATES TO SPOKANE

The O. R. & N. Co. announces a rate of $8.20 to Spokane and return. This rate is made for the benefit of the Pacific Northwest convention of Commercial bodies which meets in that city Sept. 25. Tickets for sale Sept. 23 and 24. Tickets will be good until Oct. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ashley of Enterprise visited in the city this morning.
