LOCAL ITEMS

Sheriff Frank Childers has business in Baker City today.

Mrs. J. W. Hampson, of Tellocasett, spent Sunday in La Grande visiting friends.

Misses Gertrude and Susie Ferguson returned this morning from a weeks visit with Mrs. P. Garvey at Northfork.

J. G. Barton, Mrs. Gilham, and Harry Gilham left this morning for Summerville where they will visit relatives.

Attorney Tom Crawford has returned from Enterprise where he had business before the Wallowa Circuit Court.

R. W. Edgington, one of the old time O. R. & N. conductors, but now running out of Salt Lake, is a La Grande visitor this week.

From the appearance of activity at the railroad yards it will not require any great length of time to expend that two hundred thousand dollar appropriation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gilham, who spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends and relatives in La Grande, returned to their home at Cove this morning.

E. Jamison, of Pendleton visited his parents in this city yesterday. Mr. Jamison was formerly a La Grande boy and while here renewed many of his former acquaintances.

Rev. B. F. Macdonald, pastor of the Methodist church, who has been traveling for the past three weeks in the interest of the Java Lee Academy, is expected home Wednesday.

W. E. Shull formerly a brakeman on the O. R. & N., running out of this city but now located at Spokane, is in the city this week shaking hands with old time friends. He is accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. J. A. McWalter, who for the past several months has been visiting friends in the central west, has returned to her home in this city. She states that the summer was exceedingly warm and that she is pleased to again be home where the nights are such that one may get a refreshing sleep.

Presiding Elder J. D. Gillilan and Editor George H. Currey left this morning for Weiser, where they will attend a meeting of the board of directors of the Java Lee Academy. They will also be there for the formal opening which will take place tomorrow.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will hold a rummage sale the 18, 19, and 20 of October. Persons having clothing, or anything of value which they wish to donate to the cause will please leave word with Mrs. Aldrich, Mrs. Bolton, or Mrs. Jones, and their efforts will be appreciated.

Conductor F. L. Coykendall, who has been on the sick list as a result of an operation for appendicitis, has so far recovered, as to be able to visit La Grande friends today. Mr. Coykendall was operated upon at the Portland hospital. His many friends will be pleased to know that he is now on the road to recovery.

Hon. Thos. L. McConnell, and daughter, Miss Jennie, arrived in this city this morning from their home at Oak Grove, Cal. They will remain in this city a few weeks, during which time Mr. McConnell will look after his extensive business interests here. It will be gratifying news to many friends of Mr. McConnell that his health has been greatly improved since his former visit to this valley.

Joe Woods, the liveryman, is certainly fixed to handle the transportation business during fair week. He has a carryall, new and complete, which will comfortably carry twenty-five passengers. It will be drawn by six of the best livery horses in the state and the best driver on the coast, Joe himself, will handle the reins. This afternoon Joe drove his new rig up to the school building and loaded in all the children and brought them to town. There is surely "room for one more" in this rig.

Contractor S. R. Haworth returned Saturday evening from Enterprise where he has the contract for the erection of the Enterprise fraternal building. This will be one of the finest fraternal halls in Eastern Oregon. It is to be constructed of stone and brick. The building will be sixty by ninety on the ground and thirty-five feet high. It will be complete in every way, replete with lodge rooms, banquet halls, reception rooms and modern throut. It will be the joint property of the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias. The cost when completed will be in the neighborhood of seventeen thousand dollars.

WHERE DOES YOUR MONEY GO?

If you deposited your pay check in the bank every week or month and issued checks for all your expenditures you would have a complete record of "where your money goes" and a sufficient receipt for every bill paid.

We are adding new accounts daily and our business is increasing at a very satisfactory rate.

Possibly you might be glad to join us. EASTERN OREGON TRUST & SAVINGS BANK.

BOARD CONVENES

The Board of Equalization meets this morning and will remain in session the rest of the week.

HEATING STOVES

It is time to think about heating stoves. I have a nice line to select from, all sizes and prices. If you are thinking of getting a stove call and examine them, and I am sure you will find one that will suit you. My magazine coal heater is a wonder, it is wonderful how it will save coal. Try and you will be convinced.

The groom is a livery man of Boise. The bride is a native of Madrid, Spain and has been a resident of this country only for the past year. She is an amateur by profession, and does not speak English. She is about twenty years of age, and has been following her profession that she was eight years old. The happy couple will return to Boise this evening where they will make their future home.

MARRIED

Married in this city last evening by J. G. Barton, C. D. Breedlove of Idaho City, Idaho to Ida K. Ketter of Union county.

After the wedding the bride and groom left for Idaho City where they will make their future home. The bride is well known in this city and county. The groom is a business man of Idaho.

MARRIED

KING-PRELL--At the home of O. H. King the officiating minister, Sept. 25 Mr. Richard R. King and Miss Tava Prell, both of La Grande. The young people will make their home on Cedar Street.

VALUABLE BOOK LOST

Deputy Sheriff Johnson, last Friday morning lost a valuable pocket note book in which were memoranda and papers of much value to him but of no practical value to any one else. The binding is of imitation alligator leather and has stamped on the outside cover, "La Grande National Bank." His name is on the inside cover and the finder will have no trouble in locating its owner. By returning to this office a reward will be paid.

REASON

Why go and buy a ready made suit when I can make you one just as cheap. Measured by an experienced tailor as it takes years to learn how to take measures and give a man a fit and a good suit. How can a clerk with no experience except to go by a book form, give you what you pay for?
