

FRUIT FROM GRANDE RONDE

This afternoon E. Z. Carbine, secretary of the Grande Ronde Fruitgrowers' union of La Grande, arrived with a large display of fall and winter apples from that vicinity. The union has made a specialty of inspecting, grading and packing fruit and offers for sale large quantities of first-class apples and hopes to stimulate interest in the fruit of Grande Ronde valley by making a creditable exhibit at this fair.

Mr. Carbine is an enthusiastic fair man and believes in them from every view point. He also believes in the organization of the fruitgrowers for mutual protection and assistance. The union in Grande Ronde valley has been the means of advancing the prices of fruit considerably in that locality by enforcing the laws in regard to fruit inspection and by making a specialty of grading and packing property for market. He will remain in the city during the week and would be glad to meet the fruitmen of this and Morrow county.—Pendleton E. O.

GRAND HUNTING PARTY

Sportsmen and railway officials at Grants Pass are making great preparations for the reception of the greatest "big game" hunting party that was ever in Oregon. The party will be composed of nearly 100 men, most of them New York millionaires, and the man who guided President Roosevelt through Colorado, will be the official guide of this party.

SHOCK KILLED GRANDMA

The two-year-old child of James W. Beakley, of Portland, was killed yesterday, as a result of a barn door falling on him. The child's grandmother who, is quite old, ran to the nearest neighbor's to secure help. The exertion, together with the shock, proved too much for her, and she died a few hours later.

CROP MAY ROT

Benton county's prune crop may have to rot in the orchards, if pickers cannot be secured. Help is very scarce, and many of the orchards have not been touched yet.

SHEEP SHIPMENT

Last evening the Elgin-La Grande branch took thirteen cars of sheep out of Elgin to La Grande. From here they will be shipped to eastern markets. The sheep were raised in Wallowa county and represented a neat sum of money.
