ATTENDING SCHOOL

Following is a list of the La Grande students who have entered other institutions of learning this fall.

State University at Eugene, Oregon, Pearl Huff, Loel Richardson, Eari Kilpatrick, James Neill, and Marie O'Connor. Agricultural College at Corvallis, Ore., Jay Reynolds, Raymond McKennon. Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash., Maud Clements. St. Paul's School, Walla Walla, Wash., Lala Wilson. Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa, Miss Lizzie King.

In addition to these a large number who have entered in previous years are attending the above institutions. This speaks well for our city. It shows that a larger number of our young people than in previous years are seeking the benefits of a higher education. It shows also that our public schools are creating a thirst for knowledge and this is one of their highest objects.

SHEEP PROM WALLOWA

Eleven thousand nine hundred head of sheep were shipped out of Wallowa yesterday. Thirty-five cars in all were pulled into La Grande last evening by the Elgin-La Grande train and from here they were shipped to Chicago.

There were 170 head of sheep on each deck, two decks in each car. This is a total of 340 in each car, 11,900 for grand total.

The freight on each car is $110.00, a total of $3850. The day before thirteen cars were shipped, making a total for two days, 16,320 sheep.

The sheep were purchased from Wallowa county sheep raisers and the net sum which the sheepment of that county realize is enormous.

Still another large train is being loaded at Elgin today and will be shipped perhaps tonight.

MEDICS ELECT OFFICERS

(Pendleton E. O.)

At the business meeting of the Eastern Oregon Medical Society, held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to hold the next session of the society at Radium Springs, the new sanitarium in Baker county.

At the election of officers for the ensuing year which occurred late in the afternoon, the following selections were made: Dr. Jacob Prinzing, of Ontario, president; Dr. J. A. Geisendorfer, The Dalles, first vice president; D. A. E. King, of Antelope, second vice president; Dr. C. E. Saunders, of Union, secretary and treasurer; delegates to the state society, Dr. C. J. Smith and Dr. J. A. Rueter of The Dalles; alternates, Dr. Lazier of Weston and Dr. Thomas of Milton. Dr. Gregg of Wallowa, was re-elected as a member of the board of censors.

By those who attended the convention the session was pronounced a highly successful one and the local members of the profession enjoyed the visit from their Eastern Oregon brethren.

AMUSEMENT

TONIGHT

Without doubt, Elmer Walters' production of "A Millionaire Tramp" is one of the most elaborate ever given to any play of its class. The first act shows a typical depot, with its trucks, moving trains, loafers and other characteristic equipment; the second act is the church of the Holy Cross, one of the handsomest church settings ever made. The third act shows the exterior also the interior of a country opera house with the curtain up and the performance in progress; a very unique and thrilling effect; the last act is the interior of a country tavern with its grandfather's clock, old fashioned fireplace, and quaint trappings of a past itself that must not be overlooked as it is positively the strongest of its kind in the dramatic field. A strong story with an abundance of comedy and the most beautiful finale ever given to a play.

SCOTCH SONG AND MUSIC

Something entirely new and fascinating will be presented to the music lovers Monday night, when Miss Nannie Strachan and Gavin Spence come to the Opera House in a Scotch program of song story anecdote and native Scotch wit and humor. The admission has been placed at 75cents. Both Miss Strachan and Mr. Spence are favorites of the audiences in the large cities of the land and La Grande is fortunate in securing them. They will appear at the Opera House Monday night Oct. 1.
