G. H. POWERS SAYS

All right, keep right on paying the other fellow 15% until he has the price of the property in rent and still keep the house.
He can stand it if you can, but your duty is to buy a home and the rent will turn the other fellow out in a few years and you in as owner. Two parties answered my distress sign last week and now will not let any for sale shingle hang over their door. C. F. Johnson from Portland now owns an acre in Pleasant Home and new five room house. Only paid me $1000 for it. Also Mrs. E. E. Stotts a fine up-to-date cottage and two lots close in, a $1250 snap. Only a few left. Better come in and see me, or you'll miss me when I'm gone. THE BROKEN LAND MAN

AMUSEMENT

A CREDITABLE SHOW

A packed house, despite other attractions in the city, witnessed the "Millionaire Tramp" last evening. The cast contained two actors of no mean ability.
These were the leading man and the villain. The millionaire tramp carrying the leading role was a new type of the weary Willie and instead of the usual old and stale hobo's jokes he was generally springing original ones.

The morality of the story was well depicted by this clever tramp. From a lucrative position he fell to the plane of a drunkard because of an overpowering tempter. After rambling around the world in a listless manner he was finally won back to a straighter path because of the kind acts and words of other people.

The villain too, was good. His gradual attack of insanity was natural and earned the hate and hisses of the audience, a sign of clever acting. The spectators were suddenly scared and later amused at the indignant "opera house manager," when that individual entered from the rear of the house and threatened to smash the foot lights.

A brand new edition of Pete Peterson which Elmer Walters describes as his pet play will be given at Stewarts Opera House. Theatre goers are gradually becoming tired of the same kind of farce comedy and melo-drama and are continually on a lookout for an attraction offering new ideas and originality. In Pete Peterson Mr. Walters has created a Swedish Comedy which is not easily copied. The play is entirely new this season and to date has been the most successful of any of his attractions.

The characters are all people of today.
The story bearing one the trials and a tribulations of a happy but unlucky Swede whose detective aspirations and love for a girl got him into many ludicrous as well as serious predicaments but from which he emerges always triumphant. A capable cast, elegant, special scenery and four beautiful dogs are used in its presentation Friday Oct. 5.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE MONDAY

Nannie Strachan, the prima donna of Scotland and pupil of Herr Albert Bach, will appear at Steward's opera house Monday evening, October 1, in company with Gavin Spence, a tenor of note, as well as a world famed portrayer of Scottish humor.

These people are the recipients of most flattering press notices from all parts of the United States. The Denver Republican claims them to be the finest Scottish entertainers ever seen in Denver. The Evening Telegram speaks of their entertainment as "an unequalled success."

Scotch songs as sung by the native born are enjoyed the whole world over, and the high character of the evening's entertainment deserves the patronage of all. Seats are on sale at Van Buren's stand today and Monday.
