INSTRUCTIVE AND INTERESTING

The Scotch concert last evening was extremely interesting and instructive. Those who attended, that were not Scotch by birth, came away with a better knowledge of what the Scotchman hid away in the hills of Scotland, really is. Gavin Spence as reciter and Miss Strachen as soloist were artists in their respective lines. Their rendition of a crooked babe, was especially fine. Miss Strachen has a wonderful range of voice.

The Burns society of this city is to be congratulated on securing this splendid entertainment.

Gavin Spence and Miss Strachen left this morning for Caldwell Idaho, where they give their next entertainment. It is possible that the entertainers will be heard again in La Grande next year. Their concert last night will warrant a larger crowd should they again visit this city.

ROYAL CHEF

Although one of the youngest in years, La Belle Blanch is one of the strongest members in the cast which will present "The Royal Chef" at the Steward opera house on Monday, Oct. 8. This little girl is only sixteen years old, but already has won for herself a niche high up in the temple of dramatic art. This little girl has been on the stage for a number of years, and under the tutelage of her mother has made a study of leading actors and actresses on the American stage. Her imitations of George M. Cohan, Ethel Levy, James T. Powers, Eddie Foy and Marie Dressler are without equal anywhere. In Chicago La Belle Blanch has not only the plaudits of an enthusiastic public, but of commending critics. In the role of Kitty, the Irish maid in "The Royal Chef" she has ample opportunity to display her talent as well as a mimic.

FRIDAY EVENING

Pete Peterson is coming. Elmer Walters guarantees this great Comedy drama to be the original Pete Peterson and discriminating will readily recognize this attraction as the only real Swedish Comedy in years.

Owing to the unusual demand for plays of this character, there has sprung up in the past few years several organizations of mush room growth, who by misrepresentation have endeavored to annoy their success and popularity, but to no avail. "Pete Peterson" has always been the best Swede Play, and no expense has been spared this season, to make the production as in the past, the funniest, brightest, and most up-to-date character of the day. Pretty girls, catchy music and elegant scenery are among the offerings. Steward's Opera House Friday Oct. 5.

SUPERINTENDENTS MEET

E. T. Moores, president of the Oregon county superintendent has issued a call for the annual meeting of that organization to meet at Salem Oct. 6 and 7.

The body claims for its members, county superintendents of the state, city superintendents and principals. E. E. Bragg superintendent of Union county leaves for Salem tonight and will be present during the two day's session.

IN MEMORIAM

The circuit court is this afternoon adjourned. Before the adjournment at noon today the bar association of Union county adopted the following resolution:

In the death of Hon. M. Baker of La Grande, on the 29th day of August, 1906 at the ripe age of 75 years, there past away the pioneer lawyer of Union County Oregon. Mr. Baker came to Union County Oregon, in 1862, and was the first member of the bar of this state to settle in that portion of Eastern Oregon now comprising the County of Union. He was born in Illinois on March 20th, 1831 moved from there to Missouri and from there to La Grande, Union County, Oregon in 1852 where he lived from that time until his death. He was a lawyer of ability and a brilliant advocate, proverbially true to his clientage combining with his ability a high sense of legal ethics. He appreciated the importance and dignity of the legal profession and was ever, jealous of the good name of its membership. He was especially kind and helpful to the young men in the profession both in words and in deeds impressing all upon the fact that to be a good lawyer was to be a good citizen. He was ever a high minded, public spirited citizen, contributing all in his power to any and all public enterprises tending to the development of the country, its material prosperity, and the elevation of its citizenship. He was domestic in his habits, true to his friends and never forgot a favor. He was a faithful husband, a good father, a true friend, an able lawyer and a public spirited good citizen.

In his death the Bar of Union county has lost not only its oldest and most respected, but one of its truest and most distinguished members, his family a faithful husband, and good father, and the community, a valuable citizen.

That these minutes of the life and death of M. Baker be spread upon the journal of the circuit court of the state of Oregon for Union county, that a copy be furnished to the widow and relatives of deceased, and that out of respect, and as a tribute to the memory of deceased, that the court do now stand adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Respectfully Submitted:

C. E. COCHRAN,
J. D. SLATER,
C. H. CRAWFORD.
