GIANTS FIGHT

Members of the sophomore class entertained the freshmen at a hazing party last night on Kincaid field and later on the banks of the mill race. At the command of the dominant "sophs," the freshmen responded with songs, jigs and speeches.

Several of the new students proved recalcitrant and special exercises were introduced. The feature of the evening was a wrestling match between Kilpatrick and Richardson, two giant freshmen from La Grande. Since a plunge in the race was to reward the loser of this contest, the two big fellows wrestled desperately, surging against each other like two bears until the master of ceremonies terminated their efforts by ordering both to the cool waters of the race.

In the 440 yard run the freshmen proved that they have material for the track next spring, both in the sprints and the distance runs.

The main programme for the evening was marked by the best of good fellowship in both classes and after promising to tip their hats to the sophomores the young classmen were honorably dismissed.

Later in the evening a kind of "third degree" was administered to three or four conspicuous freshmen, and the pranks of the hazers were well taken by their victims, it is understood today that the University authorities will conduct a vigorous investigation with a view to stamping out the practise completely. The sympathy of the faculty and upper classmen is strongly against the practice and of late years their efforts have done much to bring hazing into disfavor.

In a letter to Professor Hockenberry, of this city, Joel Richardson, who by the way was one of the giants referred to in the above clipping, comments on the reception tendered the freshmen by the sophs in the following words: "Saturday night Earl Kilpatrick, James Neill and I, with several other freshmen attended a reception given by the sophomores. Perhaps the sophs enjoyed it but it is quite certain that few, if any, of the freshmen did. I never was much of a wrestler, runner or dancer, and cold baths at this season, I always omit when possible. However, we carried off our part to the best of our ability and I hope to the satisfaction of the sophs."

Dr. P. A. Charlton, the veterinary, was called to Union this morning on professional business.

SOCIETY

The most elaborate event in La Grande society this season was that given by Mrs. J. H. Aikine and her daughter Moina last evening. Fifty-seven lady friends were entertained at high five and by vocal music rendered by Mesdames Scroggins, Carr, Van Buren and Miss Etta Foley. The Aikine home was profusely and tastefully decorated with roses, sweet peas, asters and dahlias. Dainty refreshments were served. At high five Mrs. Cavana proved herself the most adept. Mrs. Ormond winning second prize and Miss Ellen Grady being awarded the consolation. Those present were:

Mesdames A. Newlin, James McCoy, Ed Bartlett, F. R. Swaney, G. E. McCully, C. H. Finn, Wm. Erickson, W. J. Morrison, W. H. Rush, Jay VanBuren, Wm. Mosby, Wm. Allison, Nellie Neill, J. H. Dupes, T. J. Scroggins, J. J. Carr, N. Molitor, Spence, Fred Kiddle, J. Gulling, T. N. Murphy, Ed Murphy, C. S. Dunn, L. Dunn, H. C. Grady, W. H. Bohnenkamp, J. M. Berry, Parr, C. A. Vampillat, M. K. Hall, Ed Thomas, T. J. Ormond, Geo. Palmer, G. M. Byrkit, H. S. Cavana, Watts, C. Crawford, J. Roesch, R. Laughlin, W. K. Jones, Al Andrews.

Misses Margaret Kirk, Eliza Burke, Margaret Anzin, Margaret Porter, Mayme Reith, Evelyn Rohan, Ellen Grady, Margaret Newlin, Carmen Stoddard, Edna McCall, Allie Stephens, Eva Neill, Etta Foley, Bess Bohnenkamp, Anna McFarlane, Barber.

Mrs. J. H. Aikine and Mrs. Tom Ormond are entertaining the High Five club this afternoon at the home of the former.

Next Saturday evening Mesdames William Allison and Fred Kiddle will entertain at five hundred, about seventy-five of their lady friends at the home of Mrs. Allison.

Mrs. A. L. Richardson is entertaining about fifteen of her lady friends this afternoon at luncheon.

SPECIAL NOTICE

La Grande, Ore., Oct. 3, 1906.
To whom it may concern:
As there has been some talk and wonder as to whether the insurance company known as the Pacific Live Stock Association of Spokane, would ever pay its losses, if they had any, I desire to announce to the public that I lost a fine animal and that I received prompt payment in full. I cheerfully recommend this company to all, as being cheap, safe and reliable.

Yours respectfully,
AMALGATED SUGAR CO.

EUGENE ITEMS

(Observer Special)

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 1, 1906.

Regular class work has begun at the University today.

Mr. James Neill of La Grande arrived last Monday morning, and was followed in the evening by the rest of the La Grande delegation. All are now pleasantly situated and ready for the work of the year.

George Hugg of Summerville is at the University as a senior. He will, as heretofore, take a prominent part in athletics. Baker City is represented by over twenty students. From that city comes Dan Kelley, the phenomenal sprinter and Henry McKinney who holds the north-west record for putting the shot.

Ben J. W. Groat of La Grande is here for his second year's work.

Football practise has been going on for a week under the new coach, H. F. Bezdek of Chicago. A great number of new and old men turn out to practice every evening and a winning team seems assured. The first game of the season will be played at Eugene against the Whitman college team. This game takes place on the 20th of this month and one game will be played each week thereafter until five games have been played. The teams met in the remaining four games will be Moscow at Eugene, Washington at Eugene, O. A. C. at Corvallis, and Multnomah A. C. at Portland.

Last Friday evening a stag social was given at the Dormitory by the Y. M. C. A. to old and new members of the University. President Campbell, Carl McClain, and coach H. F. Bezdek were the speakers of the evening. After the speaking those present spent the rest of the evening in consuming refreshments and getting acquainted.

A reception was given Saturday afternoon at Mrs. Stafford's to the women of the University.

The Sophomores entertained the Freshmen at a late hour Saturday night on Kincaid field. The visiting Freshmen furnished the entertainment.
