KELLY UNDER THE KNIFE

Dan Kelly, Baker City's crack athlete was operated on yesterday at Eugene, at the home of his trainer, Bill Haywood, the surgeons hoping to correct an injury received by the world's champion sprinter upon the day he smashed the amateur record of 100 yards and did wonderful things in jumping.

At that time Dan Kelly strained himself slightly, and the injury has bothered him somewhat ever since. Although the injury was slight only an operation would relieve it, and Trainer Haywood as well as the young man's family, insisted that it should be corrected in order to make him as nearly physically perfect as is possible.

Kelly went through the operation nicely it is said, and is getting along quite as well as could be expected. Otherwise he is in the best of condition.

FOOTBALL MEETING

There will be a meeting at the Commercial club next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to which all young men of the city interested in football, are invited to attend. If La Grande is to have a commercial or city team this year it is high time that arrangements for practise were started that the team may be a success. If there is to be a team, it is incumbent upon the boys to attend this meeting and organize on a business basis, and to stay with the team till the season is over.

There is material enough in the city for a fine eleven, if proper practice and coaching can be had. Football enthusiasts are earnestly requested to attend this meeting at which time a manager and captain will be elected and plans for the year's game made.

A CREDITABLE SHOWING

Professor Hockenberry has been informed that La Grande students who are attending the University of Oregon are placing the schools of La Grande on the educational map of the state in big letters. Earl Kilpatrick, James Neil, Joel Richardson and Miss Pearl Huff, all graduates of the La Grande high schools and the special course given by Professor Hockenberry. All secured English credits and are taking Sophomore English. They got one credit in rhetoric and three in English literature. Earl Kilpatrick already has a total of twenty-five credits and will secure three more, thus having twenty eight out of the required sixty, that graduation calls for. Consequently he is practically half thru the 'varsity before beginning.

James Neil will receive a total of twenty-five credits. He too needs only six credits to be graduated. All of Mr. Hockenberry's students have received special grades.

PROMOTING DANCING CLUB

Young men of the city have set a movement on foot to perfect a dancing club. Several of the leaders in the movement have already met and organized and laid plans for the winter's entertainments. The Comos Dancing Club is its name and is to contain only a limited number of members, perhaps fifty. Cards and a circular letter are being printed and will be sent to the gentlemen of the city who indulge in dancing. The letter will explain that the membership will be limited, and to become a member, the recipient must return the card with five dollars to the secretary. This is the fee. The club will give several dances through the winter, of an informal nature, to which only the members will be the guests. Then occasionally a formal ball will be given.
