SPORTS

Over at Island City there is something doing in the way of football practice. Recently the boys of that athletically inclined suburb, organized a football organization and elected for its manager, W. H. Spence. "Reddy" Walters is captain and his ability as an athlete places him in a good position to pilot the team and if earnest hard work will do any good toward getting a winning team, a good team is assured. Captain Walters has much old material and with what new men there are that have given their acquiescence to try for the team, he should finally secure a fine team.

Walter Parker, who was at right end last year, will be shifted to right half. Will Mullenburg will be stationed at left half and James Irwin will also be at his former position, that of quarter. Capt. Walters will be seen at full and when this quartet gets to working with unity, it will take a team of no mean ability to stop them.

The line up too, is strong this year. Ben Gekler, the "young giant" will use his avoirdupois as center rush. Ed Schwebke and Will Valswinkler will be at right and left guard respectfully. The former is a new man but has already won the confidence of his team mates. The other guard is a veteran player. Right and left tackle will be held by Henry and Harmon Stein positions which they held in last year's team, and where they demonstrated that they know the game. At right end Clarence Orton will again be seen. Isaac Schaefer, also a former player, will act as left end man, and thus is completed a line-up which is properly practiced and coached will be a winner. Donald E. Meyers will coach the boys, a fact that means nothing will be left undone in the way of proper instructions.

Utility men will be C. Valswinkler and Alex Robertson.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL
While football teams are being organized in and about the city, the girls too, have decided to perfect some system whereby they can get strenuous exercise and have wholesome amusement. For this purpose about a dozen girls of the city have organized a girls' basket ball team and will commence practice as soon as they can secure a suitable hall in which to practice. There are girls enough in the organization to insure two teams. This means that the first team will always have an opportunity to get the best possible practice, that of playing against another team. Those who will compose the personnel of the first team are all experienced players, having played in high school teams here and in other cities. Girls' basket ball teams are popular in La Grande and ere many weeks, C. M. Rogers, who is to coach the teams, thinks he can pick five from the squad who will make a winning team. They will play matched games between themselves until the game and all its fine points have been thoroughly mastered and after that a schedule will be played with teams of other cities.

FOOTBALL MEETING TOMORROW
Tomorrow at three o'clock is the hour set for all lovers of foot ball, whether or not they intend to play, to be present at a meeting in the Commercial club of all persons so inclined. The matter of organization will be taken up and the prospects for a team discussed. A large attendance will mean much for the team's prospects. If it gets started off with a burst of enthusiasm, it will last. Let every football enthusiast be present to start a ball rolling, which after it has ceased to revolve, will have tacked to it pennants galore.

NO HIGH SCHOOL TEAM
If the present status of high school football is a criterion there will be no regular team in La Grande high school this year. The reason for this, is not a want of interest by either students or the school faculty, but, because the total brawn that could be donned in uniforms would not total enough to make a "kiddie" team.

With one or two exceptions, the boys on the high school are all little fellows who do not make valuable material for a foot ball team. However it is still possible, even at this late hour, that something will be done towards turning out a team. Several of last year's players are in school and the pessimistic spirit that seems to prevail the football aggregation of the present time may lift for a brighter outlook.
