Uncle Sam has been doing a big business during the past year. In the twelve months ending with August, our foreign commerce reached the $3,000,000,000 mark. During that year we bought $1,254,399,735 worth of goods from foreign countries, and in return they bought $1,759,417,898 worth of us.

If Harry Thaw had been some poor devil from the slums, his victim would have hardly got comfortably settled in his grave before he would have been hung higher than Haman or the electric chair would have transferred him to a seat among the angels. As it is, everything that money can buy and tickery invent, to shield him from his just deserts is being employed to that end. Could it be possible for the rich to receive swift judgment the same as is meted out of the poor, there would be less evil in both classes; in the former thru fear, and in the latter for lack of incentive.

WHAT A BOY SHOULD KNOW

A boy should intimately know the English Bible. He should know it as literature quite aside from its religious teaching. He should know it from having had it read to him from his earliest years, and from reading and studying it for himself. Under this same kindly home influence and with the same tactful personal introduction, every boy should have an opportunity to know the world's great stories, such as Robinson Crusoe, Gull-ivers Travels, The Swiss Family Robinson and The Pilgrim's Progress.

A mind well stored with poetry and a taste cultivated for the love of the best is a treasure to a boy. To give, this seems so easy, if the home influence and interest begin early. It only requires a wide-awake boy to become possessed of these books. The public library is accessible to very many whether they live in village or city. There are also very cheap editions most of them which may be gotten. The difficulty however, is not that boys do not have a chance to secure them but that they are too often left like rare plants without any attention. No one suggests to them the real pleasure in an occupation which leads to such knowledge as best fits their growth. It is not strange then that in a very important sense the boy is left too often to grow wild. The common sense way is for each boy to keep his eyes wide open and take up the chance that brings a suitable book within his reach. Always he may take up the Scripture and its records have for generations charmed not alone grown people but the children too.—Review of Reviews.

OLD SORES OFTEN LEAD TO CANCER

Whenever a sore or ulcer does not heal and shows signs of becoming chronic, it should arouse suspicion, because many of these places lead to Cancer. It may appear as an ordinary sore at first, and is given treatment as such, with some simple salve, wash or plaster, with the hope that the place will heal, but the real seat of the trouble is in the blood and cannot be reached by external remedies, and soon the sore will return. After awhile the deadly poison begins to eat into the surrounding flesh and the ulcer spreads rapidly, becoming more offensive and alarming until at last the sufferer finds he is afflicted with Cancer. Cancerous ulcers often start from a boil, wart, mole or pimple, which has been bruised or roughly handled, showing that the taint is in the blood, perhaps inherited. Another cause for non-healing ulcers and sores is the remains of some constitutional disease or the effects of a long spell of sickness. S. S. S. goes down to the very root of the trouble and cures so thoroughly that there is never any sign of the trouble in after years. As soon as the system gets under the influence of S. S. S. the place begins to improve, the discharge gradually grows less, the inflammation leaves, the flesh resumes its healthy color, and soon the sore is well, because every vestige of the cause has been removed from the blood. Book on sores and ulcers and medical advice without charge.

I was suffering greatly from a cancerous ulcer on my left breast, which had begun to eat, and at times would discharge very offensive matter. I knew the trouble was hereditary as an only sister, my mother and two of her sisters died of Cancer. I am fully satisfied I would have gone the same way but for S. S. S., which cured me.
