RECORD APPLE PACKING

On Thursday of last week a new record was made in the apple packing business when Percy Welds succeeded in reaching the high-water mark of 155 boxes, and Ralf Ordway, 125 boxes. This packing was done in the orchard of M. M. Hill, who informed us that the work was first class, and that the boxes were all lined and the apples wrapped.

This is certainly pretty swift work and will doubtless stand for a record in apple packing for some time to come.—Hood River News Letter.

SMF HAS RARE TALENT

Marcella Reed is the name of a young lady who possesses rare literary attainments in art. She has come to the OAC for the purpose of perfecting her training in free-hand drawing. All along the way from La Grande to Corvallis, she amused herself and the passengers by drawing all sorts of cartoons of the conductors and other passengers. She has a half a dozen good pictures of one conductor, recognizable as far as the eye can see the picture.

Brother J. R. N. Bell seems to be another subject that she cartoons in his most eloquent attitude but still he is Brother Bell. Some one said that he had the platform appearance of Spurgeon and the facial appearance of J. R. N. Art is very easy for Miss Reed and she will be an inspiration to her classes during the year. Her home will be with Prof Lewis' family on college hill; and if the Barometer should sparkle with some brilliant dashes this year, the fact need not be overlooked that in the student body this year is Bert Bower from the old home of Homer Davenport and Miss Marcella Reed, the gifted artist of La Grande.—Corvallis Gazette.

REASON

Why go and buy a ready made suit when I can make you one just as cheap. Measured by an experienced tailor as it takes years to learn how to take measures and give a man a fit and a good suit. How can a clerk with no experience except to go by a book form, give you what you pay for?
