

Fall Opening

After months of diligent search we have completed our Fall Purchases. Goods have been arriving for the last six weeks and from time to time we have been able to give you a glimpse of the many new lines that we will carry during the coming season. Our stock is complete and we cordially invite you to attend our formal FALL OPENING

Without indulging in self praise we feel this year we can serve you better than ever before---better goods, larger assortment, more novelties---and in spite of the rising market at practically the same prices as prevailed last year.

As this is an occasion, especially for displaying our merchandise we want you to feel that you are welcome---whether ready to buy or not---we want you to know what you can buy at our store and what you have to pay.

MEEKER REACHES THE EAST

Ezra Meeker, who is remarking the Oregon trail from the Pacific coast to the Missouri river, has arrived in Sioux City Iowa. A dispatch from that city says in part: "After winding his way thru and over the mountains he entered the state of Nebraska last week. He followed as closely as possible the old Oregon trail. From Collins Nebraska, he followed the North Platte river to Payne Iowa on the Missouri, along the same road the immigrants took in the '50s.

The trip was started in February the 2, and he has been continually on the road since, with the exception of two weeks, when he was held in an Idaho town by a mountain torrent.

TRUANT OFFICER APPOINTED

The school board of La Grande has decided that it is necessary and beneficial to have a truant officer. In accordance with this resolution it has appointed Marshall Rayburn to act in that capacity and from now on woe be to the child of school age who is playing hooky from school. It will be the marshal's duty to deal severely with children who will not attend school, or with parents who refuse to send their children.

NORTH SIDE SCHOOL OPEN

This morning, the splendid new school house on the North side was opened and today regular school work is carried on there. It is a twelve room structure modern and convenient thruout.

Four grades are being taught there, the 1-4 inclusive. Mrs. Nellie Neil, Misses Young, Aldrich and Mitchell will be the teachers. The new school will contain pupils living on the North side of the track. However there will be a few variations to this rule, and a few from the South side may be placed there.

TUESDAY MUSICAL

The Lytle Tuesday Musical will meet at the club rooms tomorrow afternoon.

This is the first meeting of the year and members are urgently requested to be present as plans and discussion for the coming year's work will be heard.

LADIES' AID, LIBERAL

The trustees of the M. E. church have decided to make repairs and improvements on their church home to the extent of tearing off the present boarding and replacing it diagonally, thus insuring more warmth and structural stability. The outside will also be painted. When the improvements, which will be commenced immediately, are completed, the new structure will take on a less dreary aspect. To meet the expense of these improvements, the ladies' aid society of that church yesterday announced that it would donate a hundred dollars. This amount was increased by individual subscription and now the trustees all but have the required amount.

HEATING STOVES

It is time to think about heating stoves. I have a nice line to select from, all sizes and prices. If you are thinking of getting a stove call and examine them, and I am sure you will find one that will suit you. My magazine coal heater is a wonder, it is wonderful how it will save coal. Try and you will be convinced.

COME ON TIME

As the theatrical season has just opened here it would be well to call the attention of the patrons of the opera house to the fact that they can confer a great favor upon the management also the patrons by arriving at the theatre in time to become seated before the curtain goes up for the first act. Stragglers not only lose the benefit of seeing the first of the bill, but also prevent those who did come in time from receiving the benefits of their promptness. No one has the right to disturb others. Come on time or wait for the beginning of the next act.
