EUGENE ITEMS

(Observer Special)

University of Oregon, Oct. 6, 1906. The La Grande Evening Observer is a welcome visitor among La Grande students.

The Sophomores, at a recent class meeting, passed a resolution condemning hazing in all its forms. It is that that this stand was taken at the request of the faculty, which has long been trying to put an end to the practice.

Dan Kelly, who recently underwent a slight operation, will soon be entirely recovered.

The health of students at Eugene is exceptionally good this year. There is no contagious disease and danger from typhoid fever has been eliminated. Altho the city water has been pronounced pure by the State Board of Health, the University authorities make assurance doubly sure by boiling all water used for drinking.

Training for track work has begun in the shape of preliminary cross country runs.

At assembly Wednesday morning, President Cambell addressed the student body, taking for his theme, arrangement of work and economy of time.

The annual try-out for positions on the Glee Club was held Friday afternoon. There is much talent among new students and several, including some from Eastern Oregon, will undoubtedly make good. Robert Rountree, the clever impersonator will not be with the club this year. The men still remember their entertainment at La Grande last year and are anxious to reach that town again this season.

The social event of the week in college circles was the reception to new and old students last night in the hall of the dormitory. Everybody and his friend was there. There was no formal program but the persons present spent the entire evening in getting acquainted all around.

The debating societies are getting ready for the work of the season, by electing officers and soliciting new material from among the Freshmen.

STARVING TO DEATH

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health Tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by Newlin Drug Company druggist.
