AMUSEMENT

The Royal Chef has come and gone again. During its one performance here, it demonstrated that even cities smaller than Portland can have a good comic opera once in a while. There were pretty girls with fine voices and combined with the interest they manifested in their work, it was easy for them to hold the spectators in high mirth.

TONIGHT

In as much as there is no sentiment in business, it must be sheer merit that keeps Jane Corcoran in the lead. Season after season of supplying the amusement public with the very best, has made the Jane Corcoran's theatre patrons legion. This star's chief aim is to please the amusement public, and realizing the fact that the surest way to do this is to furnish a first-class program, she strives incessantly to keep abreast of the times and furnish her patrons with the newest and most extraordinary production. Every phase of the question "What shall I furnish the public" has been carefully gone over by her with the result of the season:

she has a play and production that is superior in every respect to anything she has ever yet appeared in.

The play is from the pen of Cosmo Gordon Lennox who wrote the play for Mr. Charles Froham, and was produced at the Empire Theatre in Broadway, New York City, where it received a long and extended run. The leading character so pleased Miss Corcoran that her manager Arthur C. Aiston was induced to obtain same for her for the road. A capable company has been secured, with James M. Brophy as her chief support, and the entire production is carried and will be used during her engagement at Stewards Opera House, Thursday Oct. 9.

"A MAD LOVE" AT THE TACOMA.

"A Mad Love," which was presented at the Tacoma theatre last night by a capable company, with Miss Maretha Smart as the leading woman, met with marked success and was cordially received. The house was well filled and especially captivated by the excellent acting of Miss Smart, whose interpretation of her role, which is an exacting and intricate one, brought forth much applause and amply proved the merit which she is known to possess.

The appreciation shown Gus Ingalls as Benjamin Johnson and J. P. Jones as Robert Audley was probably equally divided, and the strong acting of Craig Myers as Sir Michael Audley commended itself to the audience. The work of Miss Marguerette Johnson in the role of Alice Audley also deserves mention.

The scene is laid in England and the plot is a new version and dramatization of "Lady Audley's Secret." "A Mad Love" is exceedingly interesting and virile, being much superior to its melodramatic title, which is misleading and apt to make one prejudiced before seeing it produced.—Tacoma Ledger, Sept. 14.—Stewards Opera House Monday, Oct. 15.

RESOLUTION

Be it resolved:—That a seven foot sidewalk, according to specifications provided by ordinance, be constructed along the North side of Greenwood Street from its intersection with Monroe Avenue to its intersection with R Street, and along R Street, East along lots numbered 22, 21, 20, 19 and 18, in Block 148, of Champlains Addition to La Grande.

The Recorder is hereby directed to give the necessary notice to all property owners abutting said proposed improvement that unless said side-walks are constructed within ten days from and after the date of such notice the same will be built by the City, and the expense and costs of the same made a lien against such abutting property.

I. R. Snook, Recorder

NEWLIN DRUG CO.

NO GUESSING BY OSTEOPATHS

The Osteopath is of course able to tell as well as other doctors whether the nerves require stimulation or its opposite, inhibition; but it is not usually necessary for the purpose of successful treatment, for him to know this. Why? Because he admits that it is Nature that will do the curing, and that he simply aims to remove obstructions that are preventing normal circulation and normal action of forces in the body. Misadjustments cause defective circulation, imperfect drainage, nerve interference, organic derangement, and one or more of these things are responsible for the nervous condition of the patients. Correction of the existing misadjustments removes the cause of the trouble.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SIDE-WALK CONSTRUCTION

Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the council of the city of La Grande, Oregon, held on Oct. 3, 1906, a resolution was passed providing for a 7 foot sidewalk along and upon the east side of Jackson avenue from its intersection with North 4th street to its intersection with North Depot street, that unless said sidewalk improvement is defeated by a remonstrance signed by at least two thirds of the abutting property owners and filed with the city Recorder within 10 days of this notice, the said sidewalk will be ordered constructed by the council of said city.

I. R. Snook, Recorder
