

Fall Opening

After months of diligent search we have completed our Fall Purchases. Goods have been arriving for the last six weeks and from time to time we have been able to give you a glimpse of the many new lines that we will carry during the coming season. Our stock is complete and we cordially invite you to attend our formal FALL OPENING

Without indulging in self praise we feel this year we can serve you better than ever before--better goods, larger assortment, more novelties--and in spite of the rising market at practically the same prices as prevailed last year.

As this is an occasion, especially for displaying our merchandise we want you to feel that you are welcome--whether ready to buy or not--we want you to know what you can buy at our store and what you have to pay.

BUILDING SPUR

The advance of the grading crew for the Oregon Central has been abated long enough to grade a spur not far from Cove.

This switch will be located on the Wm. Hutchison farm where the Citizens' grade intersects with the Hunt grade. It is being built to accommodate Cove farmers when they wish to ship beets. Instead of hauling the beets to the nearest station, the farmers can dispose of them at this switch. Right of way agent Snodgrass said today that by Saturday evening the steel would be in place to this switch, making about seven miles of new road bed completed.

BACK FROM ALASKA

O. E. Grider, formerly of this city but now a resident of the Tanana district in Alaska, is in La Grande visiting his sister Mrs. Mollie Buck, and brother, W. T. Grider. Mr. Grider has been mining in the Alaska gold fields for the past ten years and this is the first visit he has paid to the outer world during that time. For five years he has not been able to communicate with any of his family, and as a matter of fact he had been given up for lost. Mr. Grider has been successful in his work in the North and expects to return next March.

MINISTERS MEET

In response to a call from Rev. B. F. Meredith of the La Grande Methodist Episcopal church, the ministers of that denomination who have their charges in the Grande Ronde valley, are in La Grande today. At the last conference of the Idaho district, the district was divided into groups. The La Grande group includes Elgin, Cove, Union and La Grande. The ministerial meeting today is considering the plans for the winter's work in the religious field, and to arrange if possible a series of revival meetings. Those in attendance are Reverends J. H. Hixon of the Elgin charge, J. M. Dressler of Cove, W. W. Deal of Union, and B. F. Meredith of La Grande.

HEATING STOVES

It is time to think about heating stoves. I have a nice line to select from, all sizes and prices. If you are thinking of getting a stove call and examine them, and I am sure you will find one that will suit you. My magazine coal heater is a wonder, it is wonderful how it will save coal. Try and you will be convinced.

A GOOD PLAN

The county court made an order at its last meeting that all road supervisors must make a monthly itemized report of all work done by them and where, and the names of all who are employed by them. It is also ordered that full wages must not be allowed boys or those who are not able to do a day's work.

M. E. LADIES' AID

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Aldrich on Fourth street.

COME ON TIME

As the theatrical season has just opened here it would be well to call the attention of the patrons of the opera house to the fact that they can confer a great favor upon the management also the patrons by arriving at the theatre in time to become seated before the curtain goes up for the first act. Stragglers not only lose the benefit of seeing the first of the bill, but also prevent those who did come in time from receiving the benefits of their promptness. No one has the right to disturb others. Come on time or wait for the beginning of the next act.
